BLIND SENATOR SPEAKS IN STATE

Hon. Thos P. Gore at Reidsville Tuesday, and Charlotte on Wednesday.

MAYBE OTHER ADDRESSES

Official Announcement Yesterday by State Chairman Elier—To Speak Later to Elks at Durham, N. C.—His Letter.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 16.—Hon. A. H. Elier, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, announced today that Senator Thos. P. Gore, of Oklahoma, would make two and possibly other speeches in North Carolina next week in the interest of the party in this State.

The appointments definitely made are Reidsville, Tuesday, Sept. 20th, and Charlotte on Wednesday, Sept. 21st. Mr. Elier hopes also to arrange one or two other speeches for the distinguished Oklahoman, but as to these he cannot say just yet. This announcement will be received with interest and pleasure throughout the State, Senator Gore being one of the most prominent figures in National life today. His recent exposures of attempts at corruption in the National halls of legislation, his brilliant eloquence and his general high and unblemished character will impart to anything that he may say a new and convincing interest.

Some weeks ago it was announced that the eloquent Senator would speak under the auspices of the Elks at Durham, N. C., and Chairman William Young, of the Democratic County Executive Committee of Rockingham county, at once set influences at work for the distinguished Oklahoman to speak at Reidsville in that county. National Committeeman Josephus Daniels addressed Mr. Gore a letter to which a reply was received, stating that he hoped to spend a day or two in the State in behalf of the Democratic Congressional nominees, but that he would not come to Durham until some time in December or January. Senator Gore took the matter up with the National Congressional Committee at Washington and members of that committee in turn conferred with State Chairman Elier with the result as stated.

Senator Gore is a vigorous fighter and an able defender of Democratic principles. In writing to Mr. Daniels he stated that it was his hope to shiver a lance or two in the Old North State," and it is certain no one will be heard with greater pleasure than he.

COL. CONSOLVO ACQUITTED.

Virginia Paymaster General Not Guilty of Certain Charges.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 16.—Governor Mann today ordered published for the information of all interested the verdict of the court of inquiry in the recent case of Lieut. Col. Charles H. Consolvo, paymaster general of the Virginia Volunteers. The findings of the court, which the Governor approves, completely acquits Col. Consolvo of any misconduct in his official capacity and go on to say that the criticism to which the colonel has been subjected has been wholly and manifestly unjust and improper. The court was asked for by Col. Consolvo himself in consequence of newspaper strictures upon the delay in paying off the troops who were engaged in the Gettysburg manouvers.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 16.—Minor Heir, son of Heir-at-Law, again broke the world's record for a paced mile today at the State Fair Grounds, going the distance in 1:58 1-2. The former record was 1:59, which Minor Heir himself set in a race here last Monday.

EDITOR JULIAN [illegible]SSES AWAY

Well Known Salisbury [illegible]tor Victim of Dreaded Pellagra—Suffered From Disease Only Two Weeks—His Career.

Salisbury, N. C., Sept. 16.—John M. Julian, editor of the Salisbury Evening Post, whose illness with pellagra has attracted wide attention, died today.

Mr. Julian, who was stricken two weeks ago, had been unconscious since Sunday and despite skilful attention he grew gradually worse. He was a member of the North Carolina Legislature and was Secretary and Treasurer of the Bill Nye Memorial Association in this State. He was 36 years old and is survived by a wife and three children.

At the beginning of Lee S. Overman's term in the United States Senate Mr. Julian served as his private secretary in Washington. He was a son of the late Sheriff D. R. Julian, of Rowan county. For the past six years he was editor of the Salisbury Post and took a leading part in the North Carolina Press Association. He was a representative of the Associated Press.

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS.

New York, Sept. 16.—After the New York County Republican Committee had re-elected unanimously Lloyd C. Griscom its president tonight, Abraham Gruber, an assembly district leader, who has frequently gone on record as against Col. Roosevelt, sounded the only discordant note of the meeting by offering the following resolution:

"Resolved, that the Republican County Committee of New York, disapprove as unjust and dangerous to the liberties of the people the utterances of ex-President Roosevelt in respect to the judges of the United States Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals."

With a shout of disapproval the resolution was tabled and the meeting adjourned.

Previous to the presentation of the Gruber resolution the committeemen had cheered Mr. Griscom's declaration that it was the duty of the Republicans of New York county to "uphold the hand of that man in the White House, the Hon. William H. Taft," and "aid in the future in helping him to carry out the pledges which the party gave to the Nation."

It remained for John H. Hammond, in a speech nominating Mr. Griscom for the presidency of the committee to refer to the "old guard" directly. The name of the "old guard" he asserted, had been associated with the Alids scandal and the black horse cavalry; it had opposed necessary reforms and favored things for which the Republican party does not stand.

"The success of the 'old guard' at the convention," he said, "will spell disastrous defeat at the polls in November. The 'old guard' must and will be beaten and the man to whom much credit is due is Lloyd C. Griscom."

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Fourth District Judicial Rads Meet at Rocky Mount, N. C.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 16.—There was a mild judicial convention of the Republicans of the fourth district in the assembly hall of the Ricks Hotel yesterday afternoon, and they came and went and there were but few in the city who learned that they had landed and departed from these parts. The meeting was presided over by Mr. J. F. Lyles, of Tarboro, and Mr. J. E. Smith, of Vance, was secretary. The counties of Vance, Franklin, Nash, Wilson, Edgecombe, and Martin were represented. There was a new executive committee named with Mr. Wheeler Martin, of Williamston, as its chairman. There were 37 votes cast and 27 persons in attendance.

The convention placed a candidate in the field to oppose Judge Cook, and the also-ran of several months in the future will be Mr. James R. Gaskill, of Tarboro. It was given out from the convention that there was no decision as to solicitor to oppose the Democratic candidate, Mr. Allsbrook, and that the naming of a man would be left with the executive committee. Democrats around these parts declare that it was left with the committee in hopes of bringing a candidate over with a pay envelope, and that there is now not a man in the party that is worthy, and that they even have the nerve to shove forth.

CLAY COUNTY CONVENTION.

Strong Ticket Named and Joint Canvass Arranged There.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Hayesville, N. C., Sept. 13.—The Democratic county convention was held in Hayesville on Monday, Sept. 12th. Wm. H. Harrison, attorney, was nominated by acclamation for representative; B. H. Hill for clerk superior court; Jarret Thompson for register of deeds; March McClure for sheriff; Jesse M. Scroggs for treasurer; E. C. Meace for country surveyor, and W. B. Martin, Geo. S. McClure and W. A. Cassada for county commissioners. It is expected that a joint canvass of the county will be made. The joint discussion between Harrison and R. L. Herbert, candidates for the House, promises to be of unusual interest, as the vote in Clay is very close. Both candidates are good campaigners, and while the contest will be friendly, it will doubtless be warm. There will be something doing in the "State of Clay" this Fall.

WIFE OF CRIPPEN DIED FROM POISON

DR. WILLCOX CHIEF WITNESS

Case Adjourned Until September 21st—Inspector Dew On Witness Stand for Brief Period—Crowds at Trial.

London, Sept. 16.—That the death of Belle Elmore, wife of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, was due to poison was the sworn testimony of Dr. William Henry Willcox, scientific analyst to the Home office, when the trial of Dr. Crippen and his typist, Ethel Clare Leneve, for the murder of the former's wife was resumed today. The case was adjourned to September 21st.

As usual, the Bow Street police court was crowded, there being an array of fashionably dressed women present. Dr. Willcox described the nature of the medium used and said that from a quarter to half a grain would prove fatal. He had found two sevenths of a grain after a lapse of from four to eight months and judged that more than half a grain had been administered. He found no other cause of death and expressed the opinion that the victim survived the dose an hour or more.

Before Dr. Willcox was called the crown introduced medical testimony to corroborate that given on Wednesday by Prof. Augustus J. Pepper, pathologist of the University of London, who swore that the body had been dismembered by one familiar with the science of anatomy.

Dr. Willcox, whose evidence was severely technical, was in the witness box for four hours. Solicitor Arthur Newton, who is conducting the case for the defense, closely cross-examined the witness, but elicited nothing in the way of throwing fresh light upon the mystery.

Inspector Walter Dew, of Scotland Yard, then took the stand for a brief period. Solicitor Newton asked him a few questions on behalf of Miss Leneve, with the object of showing that she repeatedly said that she believed whatever Crippen told her.

"She did not mention Crippen to me," the detective replied.

TRADE WITH PHILIPPINES.

Phenomenal Increase of Traffic With the Insular Possession.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Trade between the United States and the Philippine Islands increased 84 per cent. during the first year's operation of the new tariff law, according to the Department of Commerce and Labor statistics. The new tariff law provides for the free interchange of merchandise between those islands and the United States.

On July 31 last the law had been in effect one year. The total imports from the islands in that year were 18,917,372, an increase of about 50 per cent. over the preceding year. Total exports to the islands were $17,517,675, an increase of about 70 per cent.

Chief among the imports were sugar, Manila hemp, cigars and cigarettes, copra and fibres. Sugar increased from one million dollars in 1909 to five millions in 1910. The principal exports to the islands were iron and steel manufactures, cotton cloths, flour, boots, shoes, explosives, meat and dairy products.

SUIT FOR USURY.

Wealthy Durham Man is Haled to Court on Charge.

Durham, N. C., Sept. 16.—Summons in suit for relief against G. C. Farthing, one of the city's five wealthiest men was issued this morning by Attorney Benjamin Lovenstein, formerly of Richmond. Lovenstein alleges that last winter in desperate circumstances he borrowed $5,400 of Farthing and in executing the mortgage, Farthing made the principal of note $7,500. Lovenstein sues for two thousand dollars and alleges usury. The mortgage has fallen due and the young attorney says his home is involved. He declares that the rich man charged him an excessive amount when he was helpless.

GHASTLY MURDER IN CHESTER, PA.

Hotel Proprietor Found in Room With His Throat Cut.

HIS SON IS UNDER ARREST

Boy Had Been About Hotel But Had Disappeared—Later Found by Police—No Motive for the Crime.

Chester, Pa., Sept. 16.—John J. Evans, proprietor of the Edgmont Hotel, this city, was murdered tonight while asleep in his room. His son, Richard, aged 19 years, was arrested charged with the crime and is now in the county jail at Media.

Early in the evening Evans went to his room to lie down. As he did not return to the office at his usual hour, William Nickerson, a magistrate in the second ward, went to the room occupied by Evans to awaken him. When he opened the door he was horrified to see the pillow covered with blood and a gaping wound behind Evans' left ear. The police officials were at once notified and a physician was quickly summoned, but the latter reported that Evans had been dead for at least an hour.

Suspicion pointed to the son who had been about the hotel early in the evening, but who had not been seen around the hostelry for nearly two hours. Search was at once made for the boy and he was found late tonight at Elwyn, a small town about three miles from this city.

The police officials state that it is their belief that the murder was committed while the lad was temporarily insane.

CARPENTER CASE DROPPED.

Charged With Having Another to Burn Mills.

Newton, Sept. 16.—The preliminary trial of D. J. Carpenter, charged with hiring John Rader to burn the warehouse of the Newton hosiery mills, ended Wednesday night with the discharge of Mr. Carpenter by Justice of Peace Cochrane, before whom the hearing was held. This case attracted considerable interest and was attended by larger crowds than are seen in the court house during a session of the Superior Court. The trial lasted two days, during which time only witnesses for the prosecution testified. Their evidence was not considered by the court sufficient to hold Mr. Carpenter, and he was promptly released.

BALANCE OF TRADE CHANGES.

United States Now Buying More Than Selling.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The balance of trade, which has generally shown in the statistics of the last 30 years as being largely in favor of this country, has turned over. It now stands a million dollars on the other side of the ledger for the first eight month of this calendar year. The month of August swung the pendulum, and brought into the United States $3,563,425 more in trade than was taken out.

The formation of emergency currency associations is expected to relieve any situation that might come about.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 16.—The explosion of an alcohol stove in the home of Manuel Vranin, at an early hour this morning resulted in the fatal burning of Henry Vranin, three years old, and Lassie Webber, the child's nurse. The little boy died after being taken to the City Hospital, where the nurse now lies beyond all hope of recovery.

TAFT STILL AFTER THE SECOND TERM

Story President Had Decided to Step Aside For Roosevelt Untrue.

DENIAL COMES FROM BEVERLY

Not Considering His Chances One Way or the Other at Present Time—Will Devote Himself to Carrying Out Pledges.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 16.—The publication of a story in certain newspapers yesterday afternoon and this morning purporting to come from Beverly and announcing that President Taft had decided to step aside as a Presidential candidate in 1912 to make way for Col. Theodore Roosevelt brought many inquiries to the Summer capital today. For a time an official denial was considered, but it was decided not to dignify the story, which is reported to be without any foundation whatever, with a statement.

It can be stated that there has been no change in President Taft's attitude toward a second term since he told a number of friends a few months ago that he would accept a second nomination if his party desired to tender it to him and if that portion of the American people represented by his party seemed to want him.

The President, it is said, is not considering his chances for a second term one way or the other at this time. From the first he has said that he would devote himself to carrying out as early as possible the pledges of the platform on which he was elected for a four year term. Mr. Taft, it is pointed out, will not make a political bid for the nomination.

If, at the end of his term, his party feels he has been true to his trust and has carried out its pledges insofar as he possibly could, it no doubt would be very gratifying to the President to have his administration endorsed. That, he feels, is for the country and his party to decide, not himself.

Beverly's busy season is about at an end. The President starts for New Haven and Cincinnati on Sunday night. Altogether the President will be away from Beverly two weeks, returning here October 2nd to remain until the 15th of that month.

TEDDY TO PRESS CLUB.

Discusses What Will be Done With Ex-President—His Policies.

New York, Sept. 16.—Theodore Roosevelt told the members of the New York Press Club tonight how it is that he can breakfast, dine and sup on work and then top off with more work. He said he liked it. He liked private life and he liked public life. He enjoyed every job he had ever had and he begged his hearers not to be under any anxiety as to what should be done "for this ex-President" because he would "do for himself." Whereat his auditors laughed and cheered.

Among the guests of the club was Sir William Purdie Treloar, a former Lord Mayor of London, and the colonel took advantage of his presence to refer to his famous Guild Hall speech, delivered last spring in London.

After stating that one of the cherished ornaments in his house is the box which contained the freedom of London, Col. Roosevelt said: "I have always foreborne to exercise my mind with the query as to whether or not I would have been given that freedom if I had made my Guild Hall speech before it instead of after."

Alluding to the impending State convention Col. Roosevelt says that when he returned home he had no intention whatever of taking any more part in public life. Bue, he added, he had gotten into the New York State fight because he could not help it and having got into it he would see it through. Continuing he said: "I trust we shall be able to finish it up this year. But if not then I am for it right along after, and I am for it on elementary principles. The two cardinal features of the policy with which I stand, I first place, that we have no room for the crook in public life, and in the second place, that the people are intitled to govern themselves.

"More than once I have been introduced as the friend of the poor man. I always said 'Now hold up. Say the friend of the honest man and I am with you. The friend, I hope, of the honest man, rich or poor, the foe of the crook, poor crook and rich crook."

KLONDIKE GOLD.

Placer Mining District Yields $150,000,000 in Value.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The Klondike placer mining district in Alaska has produced $150,000,000 in gold since 1898 and mining experts estimate the amount yet to be mined will equal that already produced. Consul Cole, of Dawson, states that the gold output for 1910 will exceed that of 1909 when more than three and a half millions were produced. Most of this gold, he states, was shipped to the United States. A small quantity went to the new Canadian mint. Consul Cole, at Dawson, reports that rich deposits of copper ore have been discovered in the southern part of the Klondike district.

CHANLER AGREEMENT IS FILED

Pre-Nuptial Agreement Between "Sheriff Bob" and Prima Donna Filed in New York—Assigns Property to Wife.

New York, Sept. 16.—The pre-nuptial agreement between Robert Winthrop Chanler, of this city, and his bride, Lina Cavalieri, the prima donna, of Paris, was filed today in the office of the register of New York county. La Cavalieri's full name is given as Natalina Cavalieri, spinster, an Italian subject, resident in Paris.

After defining the purpose of the agreement as designed to remove all doubts that might exist, owing to the different nationalities of the principals, as to the law governing their mutual property rights, the document proceeds to state that, "in consideration of the sum of $1 paid and said intended marriage," Chanler shall assign to his wife all his real estate, all his interest in the estate of the late Mrs. Laura Delano, subject to a mortgage of about $140,000, "for her sole and separate use absolutely."

For the same consideration of one dollar and the intended marriage, the bridegroom "Doth further covenant" to pay his wife $20,000 a year in four quarterly installments, "all payments free from income or other taxes" and "for the purpose of securing the payment of the said yearly sum" La Cavaleiri is constituted "his true and lawful attorney, irrevocable," to collect the rents and profits.

Should the income from the real estate prove insufficient at any time to pay the $20,000 yearly agreed on, a second power of attorney is conferred to govern the income payable from the fund held in trust for him by the New York Life & Insurance Trust Co.

Should this additional income still prove insufficient, a third power of attorney is conferred to govern the income from the fund held in trust by the Union Trust Company.

With the exception of these details, the agreement specifies that the property of each of the principals "shall remain the separate property and under the sole control of each of them, and furthermore, that their status and capacity generally shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York."

If Mrs. Chanler cared to attempt to compel her husband to carry out the terms of his pre-nuptial contract, the filing of the original here today by her lawyers would be her first step in any effort to enterpose her rights between him and his creditors, who it is supposed will contest the agreement.

The document not only confers the sweeping powers enumerated above, but it lists parcel by parcel all the real estate taken under its control. The list follows:

"All those three farms, known respectively as Cole farm, Chewell farm and Benna farm, situated in the township of Red Hook, Dutchess county, of an approximate area of 350 acres, or thereabouts, subject to a mortgage of $6,000 or thereabouts; and, secondly,

"All the land and buildings formerly part of the Cosine farm situated at New York, comprising:

"Numbers 830, 832, 834, 836, 838 and 840 Ninth Avenue; numbers 831, 833, 835, 837 and 839 Tenth Avenue.

"Numbers 17, 18, 19, 20, 45 1-2, 46 1-2 and 47 1-2 North Side 55th street between Ninth and Tenth Avenues.

"And all other realty, (if any) forming part of the share of the above named Robert Winthrop Chanler, of and in the estate of the late Mrs. Laura Delano, subject to a mortgage of $140,000 or thereabouts, and all his right, title and interest therein, but subject to the mortgages thereon."

It will be seen that an incumbrance of $140,000 on the thirty pieces of New York estate listed would amount to less than $5,000 on each parcel.

The agreement is dated May 31st and signed and witnessed in the presence of Hanson C. Coxe, deputy consul General of the United States at Paris. It is written in English, on parchment made in London.

Before his marriage to Mme. Cavalieri, Robert Chanler married Miss Julia Chamberlain, from whom he is divorced, and by that marriage there are two children, Dorothy, six years old, and Julia, two, now living with their mother.

CONGRESSMAN GODWIN.

Dunn, N. C., Sept. 16.—Your reporter saw Congressman H. L. Godwin today and asked him what he had to say in regard to the returns from the primary yesterday. He said: "I believe my majority will be around 5,000 and I feel profoundly grateful to all my friends in the district for their loyal support. The contest has been sharp but without bitterness and I have no feeling in my heart against any man on the other side. It will be my purpose to make a vigorous campaign and try to roll up a large majority for our party. But above all do not fail to say in your papers that I am deeply gratified at the faithful work of my friends."

BALLINGER AWAITS CABINET MEETING

To Determine Whether He Will Remain Secretary of the Interior.

A DECISION WILL BE FORCED

Depends Altogether Upon Action of His Official Colleagues—Phases of Controversy Discussed. Leaves Seattle.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Whether Richard A. Ballinger's resignation as Secretary of the Interior will follow immediately upon the meeting of the cabinet September 26th, to attend which he is now en route from Seattle; or whether he will retain his position indefinitely—at least until after the delivery to Congress of the reports of the committee which investigated his stewardship of the public domain—depends now upon the attitude of his cabinet associates.

Mr. Ballinger is coming to Washington, his friends here insist, wholly unconscious of any act on his part, either of commission of omission, for which he should be condemned, and has determined to force his chief and his official colleagues to be in effect his judges. If they concur in the view at present attributed to Mr. Taft, that the accused Secretary shall be sustained as an innocent and persecuted man, he will retain his position; if they fail so to back him up, he will resign forthwith. That this in substance is Mr. Ballinger's present position was learned here today, upon authority hardly to be questioned.

At the first meeting of the cabinet after the Summer recess, Secretary of War Dickinson, the Democratic member, will not have returned from the Philippines, and will therefore be saved the embarrassment of participation in what is regarded as largely a problem of Republican policy. The meeting is expected to last three days and the President expects to clear up a number of important matters; but it will surprise nobody here if the Ballinger case occupies a large part of the time.

Rumors have been constant and decidedly definite here during the past few days to the effect that Mr. Ballinger's resignation would be one of the first developments of the cabinet meeting; but his friends, including his associates in the Interior Department, have refused to believe that he would retire "under fire", and have pointed to his oft-repeated declaration to the contrary, and to the recent statement attributed to him, that he would resign only at the specific request of the President. Some of these, however, today admitted themselves and the Secretary to be alive to the fact that the turmoil and uncertainty into which the protracted controversy has plunged the Department must be abated soon unless this important branch of the public service is to become hopelessly demoralized.

Nobody here doubts that a majority—all but one of the Republican members—of the so-called Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee, will sustain Secretary Ballinger in their report to Congress. The views of that majority to that effect are well known. But Secretary Ballinger and his partisans here were greatly disappointed that the absence of Senators Root and Flint from the Minneapolis meeting left the pro-Ballinger portion of the committee in the minority and permitted the Democrats and the insurgent Republican member to put forth reports condemning him, which for many weeks will stand before the country as the only findings of the investigating committee; where as he had relied upon the majority for a vindication.

It is this failure of the committee to take final action which, it is said, has determined Secretary Ballinger's course. It was said here today by a close friend of the Secretary that had the majority of the committee been ready to report at the Minneapolis meeting, he would then have tendered his resignation to the President, and urged its acceptance on the ground that the dissensions to which he has been a party were detrimental to the public interest. When the committee failed at Minneapolis to take action as a whole, and when there was no quorum at the subsequent meeting in Chicago, it became apparent that no decision could be looked for practically for several months.

This situation is said to have convinced Mr. Ballinger that his position, in spite of the continued support of the President, has become untenable. Unable, as he sees it, to resign as either vindicated or condemned by the committee, he has decided, it is said, to demand of his superior and his cabinet associates either vindication or condemnation.

CHAMPION GOLFERS MEET.

Final Event at Brookline Today— Evans and Tickerman Losers.

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 16.—The mid-West will meet the Western edge of the East for the amateur golf championship of the country at the Country Club tomorrow, for today's winners in the semi-final round were Warren K. Wood, of the Homewood Club, Chicago, and William C. Fownes, Jr., of the Oakmont Country Club, Pittsburg. The losers, both of whom went down on the home green were Walter Tuckerman, of the Stockbridge Mass., Golf Club and Charles Evans, Jr., of the Edgewater Golf Club, of Chicago. Wood won from Tuckerman by two up and Fownes from Evans by one up.

The much neglected putter settled the matches today. Both the winners used the putting cleek which has been tabooed by the British Association.

"Chick" Evans, son of an Evanston, Ill., minister, will never forget the 16th hole, where he lost his championship chance. Until then golfing at Brookline had been one joyous whirl around the 3 1-3 miles course with the knowledge always that he was a hot favorite for the final honors.

Even ordinary players make the 16th hole in three strokes. Evans mounted the tee, glanced at the flags in the hole and pulling out a mashie tossed his ball deftly on the edge of the green. It looked like an easy three, and when Fownes a minute later fell short and was dangerously near the edge of one of the traps. But Fownes is a fighter. He pitched his ball from the edge of the trap 18 feet past the hole. Then Evans putted with perfect confidence that the match was his with a half for the hole but the ball ran over. Fownes holed out his putt, and Evans missed his by a hair and lost the hole. On the next hole Fownes laid his second dead to the pin and holed out 360 yards in 3. Evans became anxious. Both made fine drives for the home hole across the polo field and each was on the green on the second shot, but again Evans was too strong with his putter and the ball overran, while Fownes laid his third dead. Evans failed to run down a six foot putt and with tears in his eyes joined the hundreds that had ringed the hole in applauding the winner. For the first time after ten years work Fownes finds himself a finalist in the National event.

The morning play between Fownes and Evans was a duel of holes and not for scores.

For 24 out of 36 holes Tuckerman held wood almost at his mercy, the morning round ending four holes to the good for the Stockbridge player. Tuckerman's defeat was practically accomplished on the 17th hole when he pulled his tee shot into a trap, while on the home green Wood clinched the contest by holding another long putt for a three Wood made the course in the afternoon in 73, the best score since Herreshoff's fine work on Wednesday.

PREACHERS FOR LOCAL OPTION

Fight On State-Wide Prohibition in Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 16.—Several hundred well-known Floridians who favor local option, the preservation of the State Constitution and oppose the adoption of the proposed amendment providing for State-wide prohibition, representing every county in the State, met here today and effected a State organization to conduct the campaign.

A lively fight will be waged in every county November 8th.

Among those in attendance were preachers, professional men, merchants and farmers, many of them being men who stand high in the councils of the Democratic party and in State and church affairs.

Tentative plans for the campaign were discussed and an address to the people was issued, urging them to oppose the adoption of the proposed State-wide amendment and giving reasons why they should do so.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 16.—The Florida State Prohibition party met here in convention today with only about 20 delegates in attendance. They decided not to nominate a ticket but to devote all their energies to working for the adoption of the proposed amendment to the State Constitution providing for State-wide prohibition.

John P. Coffin was elected State chairman, and he will at once proceed to effect an organization in each county. A platform was adopted favoring a midway tariff, suffrage based on morality, the repeal of irregularitie, revenue tax on liquor, the abolition of convict lease system, the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, public ownership of public utilities, etc.

GIRL SENT HOME.

End of Romance of Virginia Girl in Washington, D. C.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Miss Beatrice Conrad, the 17-year-old girl who came here Wednesday from Harrisonburg, Va., in company with Clyde J. Carpenter, with the intention of getting married, was sent back to her home this afternoon by the board of charities.

Miss Conrad and Carpenter were taken into custody as they stepped from a train. Shortly after Miss Conrad had boarded the train for home this afternoon Carpenter was released from custody.

Miss Conrad said she still wanted to get married, and that she would become the wife of Carpenter at the first opportunity.

FRAUDS IN ILLINOIS.

Ballot Box Stuffing and Other Irregularities in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Ballot box stuffing, vote buying and selling at from 25 cents to $1, repeating, voting of "dead men" and in the names of citizens registered—these all figured in the frauds that marked yesterday's primaries in Chicago, despite the extraordinary precautions of the election board. Hundreds of complaints swamped the commissioners.

While there was little violence and no rioting, several arrests were made on charges of bribery or repeating.

Judge George ... Dupuy, of the Superior Court, was selected for a victim in one of the most successful frauds of the day. When the jurist reached his polling place the books showed that another man had voted his name.

When Judge Dupuy arrived at the polls and was told some one had voted in his name he insisted on his right to cast a ballot. Appeal was made to the election board and his ballot was accepted.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Insurgents were victorious in three out of the twenty-five congressional districts of Illinois in the primary elections yesterday.

Henry S. Boutell, standpatter Republican, who has represented the ninth Chicago district in Congress for 12 years, was defeated by Frederick H. Gansbergen, who conducted his campaign on an out-and-out insurgent plan. Gansbergen was supported by the regular Republican organization.

In the eleventh district, Col. Ira C. Copley, the first man in Illinois to come out as an insurgent candidate, won the Republican nomination over George W. Conn, who classed himself as a progressive conservative. This seat is now occupied by Howard M. Snapp, a standpatter.

John C. McKenzie secured the Republican nomination in the thirteenth district after a spirited contest with Reugen R. Tiffany.

George Edmund Foss, standpatter and head of the naval affairs committee of the House, won the Republican nomination in the tenth district.

Speaker Joseph G. Cannon was renominated in the eighth district by a majority close to 6,000. He was opposed by Henry G. Downs, an insurgent of his own city.

Lee O'Neil Browne, the minority leader of the lower house of the Illinois Legislature who was recently acquitted of a charge of bribery in connection with the election of United States Senator William Lorimer, was renominated for representative in LaSalle county by a large majority.

Out of 32 Democrats in the last Legislature who voted for William Lorimer for Senator, 22 were renominated yesterday.

BAD NEGRO RUNS AMUCK.

Killed His Wife and Then Defied Arrest.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16.—Followed by a crowd of 500 people which included a detachment of police, Oliver Lock, colored, who killed his wife early today in their home by cutting her throat with a knife, was corralled a couple of hours later in a vacant house at 124 West Gray street, only to make is escape again when the police closed in on him. He is now at liberty armed with a pistol.

The first seen of Lock after the murder was at Clay and Chestnut streets, when he met Henry Walker, 17 year old boy. Walker had heard about the murder and when he spied Lock cried, "There goes the man that killed his wife."

Lock turned around at the sound of the youth's cry and pulling a revolver shoved it in his face and threatened to blow his brains out if he uttered another cry. It was too late though, as a number of people heard the warning and started after Lock, who had begun to run down Chestnut street.

DR. WOODROW WILSON.

Congratulations Upon His Nomination From All Parts of Country.

Princetown, N. J., Sept. 16.—Dr. Woodrow Wilson, who was yesterday nominated for Governor of New Jersey by the New Jersey Democrats, said this afternoon that he would offer his resignation as president of Princeton University to the board of trustees at its next meeting on October 20. It is understood that Dr. Wilson will not urge the trustees to accept his resignation immediately. Telegrams have been pouring in on the Democratic nominee by the score since last night. Dr. Wilson mentioned especially one from Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr., of Trenton, N. J., his strongest rival for the nomination. He said it was couched in friendly terms, and that he was glad to acknowledge it publicly.

One of the telegrams received was from Norman E. Mack, National Democratic chairman. Others came from the South, President Wilson's old home, and one from Europe.

CHOLERA IN RUSSIA.

Epidemic Spreads.—Already 100,000 Victims Have Been Claimed.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 16.—The cholera epidemic which originated in southern Russia has claimed already upwards of 100,000 victims, is stretching way across Asiatic Russia and today was officially declared to be in the province of Amur in southeast Siberia and separated by the Amur river in Manchuria.

The reports now in posession of the sanitary bureau show a total for the season of 182,327 cases with 83,613 deaths. These include the early returns for the week ending September 10th and the revised figures for the preceding week. The statistics show a steady decrease in the number of cases and fatalities.

Damages For Schooner That Couldn't Get Through Draw.

New Orleans, Sept. 16.—An unusual suit for $6,700 was filed in the United States district court here yesterday against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company by W. P. and John J. Kennedy, of Biloxi, Miss. They claim that while trying to make harbor at Bay St. Louis, Miss., during the hurricane last September their schooner, the Margaret Kennedy, was forced to anchor over night in the open and was lost on account of the employes of the defendant company refusing to operate the drawbridge.

WOMAN DEFIES ARREST.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 16.—Wanted upon the charge of sending scurrilous letters through the mail, several of them having been received by business men in this city, Mrs. Josephine O'Neal, who resides on the Raleigh road, near Jackson's store, yesterday afternoon defied United States Deputy Marshal Hicks and two members of the city police force, and successfully resisted arrest. This is the second time that this woman has been approached with regard to this violation of the law and she defied Postoffice Inspector Kelley several weeks ago whereupon he reported the matter to the United States officers. The police and marshall on yesterday drove to the home and as they started into the yard the woman declared that she would kill the first person to enter the yard, and she had two vicious dogs that she had turned loose to attack the men if they had started in. The officers agreed that she might be taken if they would fire upon her, and that they thought an exchange of shots would be necessary before she might be arrested. The United States marshall stated that he had no authority to begin such an attack, though he did have a warrant for her arrest. He instructed the officers to leave the house pending further instructions from the heads of his department at Raleigh before he forced the arrest.

The charge for which the woman is wanted is indeed a serious one and the law in the matter is that she may be given a fine of $5,000 or five years in the Federal prison or both in the discretion of the court. The offence that caused a taking out of the warrant occurred about the middle of last May when Mr. B. B. Williford, a merchant in her section of the city, mailed her a bill whereupon she wrote him a threatening, insulting and obscene letter. He turned the communication over to the postal authorities with the results as named above. Since the woman has sprung into the limelight by the writing of this letter it has been learned that several business and professional men in the city have received them. Notably among those people receiving communications was a gentleman who sold her an organ and then dunned her several times by mail, whereupon she fired back several very insulting letters and making threats galore.

The warrant for this woman's arrest and trial was returnable before United States Commissioner J. B. Ramsey, of this city. The course that the government will pursue in the matter is not known here, and the case will be watched with interest. It is known that the woman cannot continue to defy the government, however, the question is, will several deputies be sent here to take the woman at any cost, or will the charges against her be dropped if the act is not repeated. A dropping of charges is not a usual habit of the law of the land, but the vicious disposition of the woman, and the fact that she has a husband and several children may give some consideration to her.

PERHAPS TRAIN ROBBERS.

Held Up Light Engine, Mistaking It for Through Train.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 16.—Special agents of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad caused the arrest late last night of Emile Morlet, formerly of New Orleans and Scranton, Miss., and Gus Touselle, on suspicion of having held up a light engine on the Louisville & Nashville at Bayou Sara bridge in this county on the night of September 3rd, mistaking it for the New York and New Orleans fast mail. Five special agents of the company and a score of local officers have been working on the case.

UTAH DEMOCRATS.

State Platform Calls for Prohibition and Direct Primaries.

Provo, Utah., Sept. 16.—The Democratic State platform adopted at the State convention here last night demands a prohibition law, direct primary elections, the election of United States Senators by popular vote, the initiative and referendum and recall and a tariff commission. The conservation plank advocated co-operation by the State and National governments and the widest use of public lands for settlement and mining.

Wilmington Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Wilmington citizen:

R. F. Rowan, 603 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I have no reason to alter my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, publicly expressed some years ago, after I had used them with good results. Since then many people have called on me and asked if the statement I gave were true and it has always afforded me pleasure to answer in the affirmative. As the result of a strain I suffered a great deal from backache. At times I was so lame that I could hardly straighten and my back was so weak that I was unable to lift. I tried plasters and liniments but they did me no good and when I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store. I felt relieved after taking a few doses and continued use strengthened my back and disposed of the pains. Since then there has been no return attack of kidney complaint and I firmly believe my cure is a permanent one.

DAY'S DOINGS AT RALEIGH

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 16.—There was a lengthy conference today between members of the Corporation Commission and representatives of the Atlantic Coast Line, the Raleigh & Southport and citizens of Fayetteville regarding the contest that is on at Fayetteville over the matter of a new passenger station.

The citizens are demanding a new union station. The Raleigh & Southport people say they have very recently erected an excellent station to take care of their passenger business there for years to come, and the Atlantic Coast Line is insisting that it be allowed to proceed with the enlargement of its old station to meet the requirements of its increased business, the purpose of the A. C. L. being to expend about $20,000 on the enlargement. The Corporation Commission is seeking to harmonize the contending interests. It is thought that there is still a strong probability that an agreement will be reached for a union station on a site that will be satisfactory to all parties at interest. Here for the Atlantic Coast Line were Assistant General Counsel George Elliott, General Superintendent W. H. Newell, of the Atlantic Coast Line; President Jno. A. Mills for the Raleigh & Southoort, and H. L. Cook and Major E. J. Hale, representing the citizens insisting on a union station.

At the conclusion of the conference the Atlantic Coast Line and Raleigh & Southport representatives expressed confidence that they can get together on a union station, the Raleigh & Southport to pay a rental as in Raleigh. Plans for a $40,000 union station are to be prepared for approval by the Corporation Commission.

Governor Kitchin went this afternoon to Nashville, Nash county, where he will tomorrow deliver a political speech, much of his time for the next 60 days being pledged to campaign work under the direction of the Democratic State headquarters.

Dr. T. N. Jordan says that he has procured from Attorney General Bickett an opinion taking the position that he has a perfect right to retain his position of city physician for Raleigh and the office of physician for the State's prison to which he has just been appointed by Governor Kitchin to succeed Dr. Riddick resigned. Dr. Jordan has taken up the work of his new position. He says he finds the general health conditions among the prison convicts expectionally good at this time.

Hon. B. F. Dixon, State auditor, has returned from a stay of several weeks in Western Carolina, having gone into the Tenth, the Eighth and the Fifth Congressional districts especially and observed the conditions politically. He declares that he is confident that all three will be redeemed by the Democrats at the November election by good safe majorities. He says Gudger is making inroads on Congressman Grant in the Tenth fast, the defeat of Grant being already assured. In the Eighth he says Doughton (Democrat) is having Congressman Cowles so completely in the joint canvass that voters are deserting him and coming over to Doughton all through the district. Major Stedman in the Fifth, he says, has things going his way in the fight against David Blair, the youthful candidate whom the Republicans have seen fit to set up as a proposed successor to Congressman Morehead. Major Dixon is expecting a solid Democratic North Carolina delegation in Congress as the result of the Fall elections.

State Chairman A. H. Eller, at Democratic headquarters, is finding it impossible to get out the North Carolina Democratic Handbook fast enough to satisfy the urgent demands that are pouring in. Already nearly 10,000 copies have gone out in the mails and by express into every part of the State, and the issue scarcely 24 hours from the press. The principal shipments to the county chairmen and other political workers that are to go in large quantities for distribution are yet to be gotten out and a large force of clerks is engaged in this work.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Tobacco Market Opened Up—Schools to Begin—An Accident.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Sept. 16.—Washington's tobacco market is proving a great success and the daily sales are rapidly increasing from day to day. Yesterday and today were both record breakers for a new market. Yesterday the sales were 1,800 pounds at an average of 8 cents. The tobacco being brought to this city by the farmers from all over this section of the State is of exceptionally good grade and is bringing good prices.

The city public schools will open for their Fall and Winter term on Monday. Most of the teachers have already arrived and Supt. Newbold is getting everything in shape for beginning the work in a most efficient manner.

Mr. James Weston, of this city, while riding a pony on the streets of the city yesterday, had the misfortune to be thrown from the animal backwards, sustaining a very painful fall, which has confined him to his bed. His injuries while painful are not considered serious and his physician hopes that his injury is only temporary.

The Lash of a Fiend

would have been about as welcome to A. Cooper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hay fever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by Robert R. Bellamy.

LOSING RANK AS EXPORTERS.

Talks of Situation in United States to Cotton Manufacturers.

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 16.—"Conditions are rapidly changing, we are losing our position as the great exporters of foodstuffs, and must give more attention to exporting our manufactured goods," declared C. A. Green, of New York, tonight, in speaking before the 89th semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers in this city on the subject of "foreign markets for cotton textiles."

"Our facilities for the production of goods have multiplied so rapidly during the past few years," declared Mr. Green, "that we have overtaken our capacity for consumption, great as it is."

Mr. Green cited the great South American markets in which the United States imports amount to a small percent. "It is an undeniable fact," said he, "that the need for a more extended market for our textile productions exists and it seems to me that the real safeguard for your industry lies in getting those markets."

Spencer Janney Steimnetz, of Boston, in a paper on the "cotton mills of Mexico," called attention to the fact "that the cotton mills of Mexico do not produce one fifth of the cotton demanded by that country and four fifths is imported from France, England and Germany, and while I have not the exact figures of the trade we receive, it is the mouse's share, instead of the lion's share, as it should be. The Panama Canal will, let us hope, be open for business in three years—then all English, French and German mills will reap the rich harvest they have so diligently sown in the past and present. They have mapped their plans and we must get active if we want the vast Latin-American business."

POLITICIANS GREET TEDDY.

Held Long Conference in New York. A Statement Refused.

New York, Sept. 16.—County politicians from all parts of New York State gathered today at Theodore Roosevelt's editorial offices to tell him where they stand in the fight now on within the Republican party. The colonel talked from morning till night with leaders of both sides, but as he was leaving at the end of the day, the only statement he would make was that he had not a word to say.

"I cannot discuss it at all," he said emphatically when pressed for some word as to what he had learned about the strength of the forces he is marshalling against the old guard.

Some of those who saw Col. Roosevelt today brought back word that he had been informed of disaffection within his own ranks, but none of them was willing to go on record by name. George Cromwell, president of the borough of Richmond, and a member of the Republican State Committee, was the only one who did not hesitate to say where he stood.

"I'm going to vote against Roosevelt," he said. "I have taken that resolution after thinking it over carefully and I hear nothing but commendation from my people in Staten Island."

Mr. Cromwell's stand provoked comment in that he has often spoken of his friendship for Col. Roosevelt, dating back to their boyhood days, and that his statement was made today directly after a long conference with him.

Col. Roosevelt took dinner tonight at the Press Club and spent the night in this city with his brother-in-law, Douglas Robinson. He is to leave at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow morning for Syracuse, where he will speak at the State Fair.

BALLINGER DON'T CARE.

Unconcerned Over What Other People Say—Tendered a Luncheon.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 16.—"I don't care what anybody says about me so long as I am conscious of doing my duty, not only as a private citizen, but as a public officer. The man who pursues the course that seems to him to meet the obligations of his place in life has no need to fear about the future."

So declared Richard A. Ballinger, Secretary of the Interior, today at a luncheon given to him by the Chamber of Commerce before his departure for the East.

"So far as the public service of this country is concerned, every man I know in this administration is laboring first to know the needs of the nation, then to execute these needs within the limits of the law and the constitution. We have not reached the day when the fundamental doctrines of this Republic can be forgotten or overlooked.

Saturday, September 17th, 1910.

In about three weeks Expresident Roosevelt will come South on a speaking tour. The South will listen to what he says and decide that it always was wise to remain Solid.

The rapturously beautiful Lina Cavalleri, having been successful in separating her millionaire husband from his money during a married life of about three months, decided not to let him be her Johnny any more.

The New Orleans States, the Buffalo Courier and other contemporaries assert that Roosevelt's sensational kick against Senator Lorimer was one of the Rough Rider's advertising ideas and that his deliberate intention was to work the advertisement for all it was worth. It certainly must make Lorimer mad to realize that the Rough Rider should treat him like he was nothing but a circus billboard.

Says a New York financier: "Business conditions would be all right, if people who don't know anything about business wouldn't go around the country talking about it." Col. Roosevelt is not named but he knows the male factors of great wealth think they know that he does not know his business A B C's. Nevertheless, the Colonel knows his business and how to work it for all its worth. He is doing business for Roosevelt.

"Roosevelt does things," reiterates a Western contemporary. He surely does. He does things that give him an immense amount of publicity in every newspaper in America and frequently in Europe. The Rough Rider knows what publicity is and he knows how to get publicity. Some cities know how to get publicity and some don't. Those cities which get publicity fully realize its value, for it is the best city promoter that can be devised. Get your city and community known away from home.

The Republican press of North Carolina is holding up the beauties of "progressive Republicanism" to the "young men of North Carolina who have a lifetime before them. They know it is useless to appeal to the older fellows because they have memories well stored with recollections of what Republicanism has been and which enable them now to recognize it as the same old hobgobblin wearing a different mask. The young North Carolinians will be pretty apt to take to the woods with their fathers who know what they know from horrible experience and the sorrowful observation of many weary years.

Says the Winston-Salem Republican: "The Department of Commerce and Labor, at Washington, states that the increase in the cost of living in other countries, especially in France, has increased in the last ten years as much as in this country. Maybe the American tariff is affecting those countries, as the Democrats claim for this nation." Oh, you! Did you know France is also a protection country? For the benefit of consumers, compare prices with England whose working people are so happy and contented that we can't induce them to come to America where the Republican party boasts of its "protection for labor." They are fully aware that American labor gets its share of protection by keeping up organizations and striking for higher wages as about their only means of getting their just share of the wealth their labor produces. Tariff benefits come to labor second-handed and it doesn't come to them till they are so hard pushed by tariff burdens they have to strike in order to get more wages to meet increased expenses.

PROTECTIONIST SMUGGLERS.

The lady who goes to Europe and buys diamonds, pearls, silks and laces for herself has to pay tariff duty on them if she does not succeed in escaping the vigilance of a very active set of custom house officials. Many of them have made attempts to smuggle fineries into New York but most of them have been caught at it and it has cost many of them a good bit of money in paying the penalties. However, the lady who wears the diamonds, the pearls, the silks and the laces bought abroad has to pay the tariff tax in addition to the money which she paid for her jewelry and fineries in Paris or London. She is the consumer and the consumer foots the bill. So we see that it is not the foreigner who pays the tariff taxes but the ultimate consumer who purchases the goods and commodities imported from foreign producers.

Even the tariff beneficiaries and their wives know who pays the tariff, for when you see them attempting to smuggle their foreign purchases through the New York custom house you know they are doing it to save the tariff tax which will have to come out of their pockets. It is a little curious that many of the beneficiaries have been caught in the act of evading the tariff law which has been imposed upon us consumers for their benefit and which sometimes falls upon them when they purchase things to eat and wear like other folks. However, when they manufacture hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of goods and get the tariff benefit on their manufactures, they can afford to pay the small tariff tax on what they purchase, without endeavoring to avoid it by smuggling and false weights like those put off on Uncle Sam by the protected Sugar Trust.

Everybody's Magazine for this month contains an article presenting some interesting facts concerning protectionist smugglers. Some of the incidents and facts sighted are not at all creditable. It seems that the most discreditable fact is that those who have made great fortunes by reason of the high protective tariff have been most unscrupulous in the smuggling game. The case is mentioned of a Milwaukee man who was made rich by the duties on iron ore and whose widow and daughter were caught a few months ago trying to sneak through the customs trunks filled with laces, silks and foreign-made gowns.

Another interesting case is that of Mr. W. B. Leeds, of Chicago, who became president of the Tin Plate Trust and made his fortune out of the tax on the consumers of tin plate. He went to Paris and bought a necklace worth $340,000, with the understanding that the French jeweler should deliver it to Mrs. Leeds at Newport. Mr. Leeds has since died, but the question whether the necklace could be entered as "loose pearls" at a duty of $22,000 instead of as made up jewelry, is still being considered by the courts.

As a manufacturer of agricultural implements, Mr. John P. Adriance, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has made a comfortable fortune by reason of the 20 per cent tariff duty on the products of his plant, but his wife is now having trouble with the law because she concealed a pearl necklace in her hat and attempted to smuggle it through the customs when she landed in New York. Mr. Adriance is a rank protectionist and a regular voter of the Republican ticket, but in defense of his wife he now asserts that everybody should be allowed to bring back from Europe what they like.

The enforcement of the tariff no doubt, is a very unpleasant business, but it stands as the Nation's law and violation of it is regarded by the government as indirect larceny, and, when all things are considered, the persons who have made barrels of money out of the taxes it lays on the people should be the last in the world to evade it. The plain truth is, they are veritable tariff hogs and smugglers.

Conserve your North Carolinianism till the 8th of November and then vote against Butlerism as the best way to show your true colors.

Roosevelt says he is "going to fight the boses." If therefore the bosses want it to be "a friendly fight" they had better let the Colonel act as temporary chairman of the State Convention.

The Republican majority on the Ballinger investigation committee found the minority guilty for bringing in a verdict condemning Ballinger. Partisan politics on the part of either Republicans or Democrats in a Congressional Committee indicates a smallness that deserves double-brewed contempt on the part of all fair-minded men.

The Republican majority of the Ballinger whitewash committee are mad at the Democratic-Insurgent minority of the committee for making a premature report condemning Ballinger at this time. It is enough to make them mad when it is considered that they were compelled to do their whitewashing before instead of after the election.

FOLLOWS THE DEMOCRATIC FLAG.

The extraordinary primary election held on Thursday by the Democrats of the Sixth Congressional District, settled the unfortunate controversy as to the party's nominee for Congress. The election was held in accordance with the arbitraments and plans of the State Democratic Executive committee, which acted as referee in a solution of the contentions of present Congressman H. L. Godwin, of Dunn, and the Hon. Oscar L. Clark, of Clarkton, respectively the nominees of the split convention held at Wrightsville in July. Whether both factions to the controversy have carried out their agreement in referring their contentions to the Executive Committee for settlement or not, or whether the friends of Messrs. Godwin and Clark acted in good faith in the primary election or not—the fact remains that all sides to the controversy accepted the solution suggested by the State Committee, the ballot primary accordingly was held, and the District Democrats have registered their will. It now remains for Democrats to acquiesce in the final result and loyally and enthusiastically support the nominee.

Their choice was between Mr. Godwin and Mr. Clark, and the decision was overwhelmingly in favor of Mr. Godwin, who has already served the district two terms (four years) in the House of Representatives. Our fellow Democrats have now clearly expressed their will, and, whether any shall call it "eating crow" or "acting in good faith," all Democrats should acknowledge Mr. Godwin as the party nominee, and vote for him in November. If any large number of the opposing faction should refuse to support the nominee after an agreement to leave the nomination to a primary election, it would only justify the winning faction in returning the compliment some other day, perhaps. It is hoped, therefore, that all who believe in the principles of the Democratic party will support the nominee who will go to Washington pledged to carry them out.

The result of the primary proved conclusively that Mr. Godwin is overwhelmingly the choice of the Democratic voters of the seven counties in the Sixth district. Mr. Godwin won the nomination by a majority of 4,500 or more and the State Committee thereupon will declare him the party's nominee for Congress. Our fellow Democrats in the various counties of the district have spoken in no uncertain tone in their choice for Congress, and as a matter of fact, Mr. Godwin's primary vote was so large that unquestionably it makes him a very strong candidate against the opposition. There should be no thought otherwise than that of supporting him at the polls on the 8th of November. Any other course would be suicidal to party principles in this campaign and prove a discordant and disorganizing factor in the district Democracy's future.

In a primary election voters make choice of men instead of measures. In the regular election in November it will be a choice of measures and not men. Democrats who are convicted upon the principles of their party vote for those principles when they support a candidate committed to the Democratic State and National platforms. To remain away from the polls endangers those principles because it weakens the chances of the nominee's election, and with him down goes the vital political principles for which we stand.

Of course, Mr. Godwin has a strong personal following, and his adherents in supporting him in November will vote for both man and principles. In the case of others, and it is believed they will be few, they will be voting for principle. There was a hard fight against Mr. Godwin and he won. The big vote given him is an unqualified endorsement of him as a member of Congress during the past four years and as a man and citizen. The overwhelming vote received by him must be construed as a vindication of his political course and character. The endorsement has been pronounced and emphatic, and as he will carry the Democratic standard it must not trail in defeat.

For the good of Democracy in the Nation, in the State, in the district, in the country and in the city, we must elect all our own party nominees in November. The triumph of any man is as nothing. The eternal principles must win. They are winning in the Nation and they must win in North Carolina. The crisis is grave and North Carolina Democrats must save the day. There should not be a discordant note from the Good Old North State in the moment of the triumph of the National Democracy in November. Vital issues are at stake and they are more important than the election or defeat of any man. Every Congressional district in North Carolina must be represented by a Democrat, and they will be if Democrats will bury their differences and vote for their principles.

All Democrats in North Carolina should get together now for a solid vote in November, and if there are to be factional differences they can be settled in the two years after the November election—an election to relieve the burdens of consumers and redeem the Republic from the grasp of greed, monopoly and special interests.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Mr. Champ Clark is no longer a rainbow chaser. He sits down and waits for the rainbow to come his way.—Washington Star.

"The little group of men" to which Senator Aldrich refers contemptuously has a majority of about 35,000 in the Republican party in Kansas.—Kansas City Star.

The Sixth district has a near-Democrat running on the Republican ticket for Congress but it has nothing on the Ninth which can brag, a "Roosevelt Democrat" as a candidate.—Charlotte News.

Governor Aycock said it took Taft six months to find out there was not a Republican in North Carolina fit to be judge, when any ten-year-old boy in North Carolina knew that before breakfast.—Newbern Sun.

President Taft announces that he will discontinue the "referee" system of distribution of patronage among Southern Republicans. The reform comes late. Incidentally, there will soon be no patronage to distribute.—Richmond Virginian.

Why is it that the Republicans have to take some convert from the Democratic ranks like McNinch and Meares, and nominate them for Congress? Are there none of the old line buffies in these districts that are fit to go to Congress?—Newbern Sun.

When evidence concerning $1,000,000 frauds on the Illinois Central is thrown into the Chicago river and fished out by a houseboat preacher to confront the thieves, they must think that the ways of Providence are mysterious.—New York World.

Senator Aldrich may not be in any unholy alliance with the Rubber Trust, but Rhode Island will certainly appear to be if the Legislature chooses Colonel S. P. Colt as the Senator's successor. The colonel is the very head and front of the big rubber corporation.—Springfield Republican.

The Guggenheim family appears to be pretty well protected by the tariff; for the New York World gives a list of the products of 20 trusts on some of which the duties were largely increased and in which the Guggenheims are very largely interested. United States Senator Guggenheim, with whom Roosevelt was hobnobbing at Denver, is a candidate for re-election from Colorado, and the honest voters of that State will no doubt attend to his case next November.—Greensboro Record.

We do not wonder that Mr. Hooper doesn't see any National significance in the flopping of Tennessee into the Republican column. If we were in Mr. Hooper's shoes we would probably feel the same way about it. We haven't the slightest doubt, however, that the gentlemen who are managing the National administration campaign takes a very decidedly different view of it, which affords illuminating evidence that politics is a game of wonderful possibilities in finesse and buncombe.—Chattanooga Times.

The Republicans are hoping that Butler will put money in the coming campaign and thereby put the Third Congressional District in the Republican column. They were never more mistaken. Nothing could be more fortunate for the Democratic party in the State than to have Butler as leader of the opposition party. He stands for nothing, is known as a political acrobat by all the honest voters and they have no confidence in him. They tried him long enough years ago. The use of money to corrupt the ballot box is a crime and those engaged in such a method in this campaign should be prosecuted and put on the roads. Watch out for them and report them at once. Only a sorry white man will sell his vote or influence and he should be exposed also.—Kenansville Eastern Carolina News.

It must be very embarrassing to the old line Republicans, not to say humiliating, to see their party organization fall into the hands of Mary Ann Butler, root and branch. No one will contend for a moment that Morehead is more than the stool pigeon for the old sly fox from Sampson. The whole Republican party in North Carolina is under the direct control of Butler, and every move made in this campaign will be dictated by him. Even the speakers will be compelled to take their morning lesson from him or else be canned by the Butler organization. We were hopeful that the party machine would fall into the hands of such reputable Republicans as our esteemed townsman, A. H. Price, Esq., but alas, it has gone to Butler and the old line element composed of real Republicans have been ignored and turned out by this designing individual. It's time the people were turning their faces to Democracy and deserting a party that will allow itself to be captured and controlled by a man who is every day scheming to make the State pay the unjust and unrighteous bonds of war time.—Salisbury Post.

A New York contemporary announces that theatrical managers are worried over "a famine of chorus girls." Any worry along that line by the theatrical managers will be equally shared by the Johnnies.

It is stated that during a connubial disturbance, Chalner threw a piece of bread at his song-bird Lina and Cavaleiri threw cherries at him in order to show him she wouldn't "take a thing off him." It seems she had the best of it in weapons.

NEVER TOO LATE TO ENTER RACE

Congressional Primary Over But Popularity Voting Contest Has Just Begun.

NOW TIME TO GET BUSY

Real Opening Will Occur When First Announcement of Vote is Made in a Few Days—There Are No Favorites.

"Is it too late to enter the contest?"

This has been the query of numbers of young ladies, who have written, 'phoned, and called personally at the contest department of the Star. In answer to these, we would say that the contest has not even started. In fact the names have not been announced, but will be published soon.

The contestants who have already entered the contest, and the different ones who desire to enter a favorite should do so now, as the contest will really start when the names of the different contestants are published.

After the first announcement the names will be published daily, showing the votes cast by each contestant from day to day.

The Time Is Now.

Now is the time to enter your name or the name of your favorite, and cast your votes in order that the one that you are interested in will have a fair showing at the real opening of the contest, which will occur in a few days.

Any one interested in the contest who would like to have sample copies of the Morning Star or contest literature, can have same by writing to the manager of the contest, or calling personally at his office.

A good start is half the battle, and, therefore, it behooves every one who is interested to begin now, and keep busy for the next eight weeks, as the contest will positively close on Monday, November 7th.

No Extensions.

It will not be a case of three or four weeks from now having the contest department announce that there will be an extension of a week or a month, owing to the inclemency of the weather, or something else, but the contest will positively close at the time stated in the first advertisement which appeared in the Morning Star.

Now is the time to get busy, as there are only eight weeks to make your favorite a winner. Any possible assistance that can be rendered by the contest department will be cheerfully given to all, as the contest department absolutely has no favorites, and at the final count, the actual winners will be those who have turned in the most votes during the period of the contest.

How Votes Are Secured.

A coupon good for five votes will appear in the Star for a few weeks. These coupons are good for votes, and a contestant may gather just as many of them as it is possible for her to secure. These coupons in order to be counted do not have to be accompanied with a subscription, but each one if sent to the Morning Star office with a contestant's name filled in will count to the young lady's credit toward one of these handsome premiums.

Securing Votes.

Another way to secure votes is to get subscriptions to the Morning Star. Votes will be allowed on new subscriptions, also renewals, and arrearage payments when an additional payment is made in advance.

Young Woman's Contest.

Contest No. 1 is for young women, married or single, and has been divided into six districts so that all of the contestants will not be working against each other.

In this contest the Star is offering four Grand Prizes, and 24 district prizes, consisting of $500.00 in cash, a handsome upright piano, two trips to Cuba, with all expenses, a Shetland Pony, Harness and Trap, six Handsome Diamond Rings, Six Turkish Rockers, Six Gold Watches and Six $25.00 Bank Accounts.

The young woman, city or country, who has the largest number of votes to her credit at the close of the contest will be awarded the $500.00 in cash. The second highest will be awarded the Piano. Third highest will receive the Trips to Cuba, selecting her own companion to accompany her, and the fourth highest will receive a Shetland Pony and complete outfit.

Should the second highest contestant, however, prefer the trips or the Pony to her Piano, she would be allowed the privilege of choosing her prize, as the largest numbers of votes of course, have first choice of the prizes.

Twenty-four District Prizes.

After the Four Grand Prizes have been awarded there will be 24 district prizes divided evenly among the six districts making four prizes sure to go to each of the six districts into which this contest has been divided.

A coupon good for five votes appears daily in the Morning Star, and of these a young woman may gather as many as she possibly can daily, and have her friends gather them for her, and if she sends them into the office before the date at the bottom has expired, they will each one count for five votes to her credit.

The nomination blanks which also appear daily, are to be used for nominating only, and only one will be credited to each contestant. These nominating blanks count for 2,000 votes, and enable the young woman to make a good start when she first enters the contest.

How Votes Are Secured.

Contestants and their friends may gather as many of the ten vote daily ballots as they can possibly secure, each one placing the candidate's names just that much nearer the Grand Prizes.

Another way to secure votes is to gather subscriptions to the Morning Star. Votes will be allowed on new subscriptions, on arrearges, and also on renewal of subscriptions.

Year's Subscription 3,000 Votes.

A year's subscription to the Morning Star is $6.00 and on that subscription 3,000 votes will be given on a new subscriber. The schedule on four months and six months subscriptions is also fully outlined in today's announcement. A full list of premiums, the schedule of votes, the distribution of the prizes, in fact every detail pertaining to the contest is fully explained in the full page announcement today.

Now is the time to enter the contest, for an early start is half the battle. Send in your name or that of your friend at once to the Contest Manager of the Morning Star, and get the contest fully explained, and the winning will be easy.

Who May Enter Contest.

Any young woman, married or single, residing in Wilmington or the States of North or South Carolina, is eligible to compete in this contest. A young woman does not have to be a subscriber to the paper in order to enter. All that is necessary is to send in the name and address, and assurance that the person entering is in good standing.

No relative or anyone connected with the Star office will be allowed as a contestant.

Contest No. 2—For Boys.

The Star has also put on a contest affording the hustling boys of its territory a chance to put in their spare time during the next few weeks before school opens to win a handsome prize for their efforts.

A coupon appears daily for the boys' contest, and each one of the votes counts for five, and the young man may secure as many of these as he possibly can get together. His friends may gather them and send them in for him, just so they are sent in before the date at the bottom has expired. They will count to the young man's credit for five votes each.

This contest is entirely separate from the contest for young women which has just been inaugurated, but the same schedule of votes will be used for both contests. That is 3,000 votes on a new yearly subscription, 1,000 votes on a new six months subscription, and 400 votes on a new four months subscription.

There will be three prizes for the young men in the city of Wilmington, and three prizes for young men outside of the city of Wilmington, so in that manner this contest has been divided into two districts. The first prize for each district for the young men will be $50.00 each in cash. The second prize for each of the two districts will be handsome gold watches, and the third prizes for each of the two districts will be smaller watches.

A young man may send in one of the nomination blanks, thereby starting his name in the paper with 2,000 votes, and he may gather as many of the five vote coupons as he can possibly secure. Besides that he may secure subscriptions to the Morning Star, and secure large number of votes on each one brought in.

REPRESENTATIVE KOONCE HERE

Genial Onslow Legislator in Race for Speaker of House.

Representative E. M. Koonce, of Onslow county, came over yesterday and will spend a few days in the city. Mr. Koonce has just been returned to the General Assembly of North Carolina after a most aggressive campaign in which he won out over several opponents. He is a candidate for the speakership of the House at its next session and is receiving gratifying assurances of support from all over the State. He is a man of experience, a Democrat of unswerving devotion to the party, a gentleman of commanding presence, an able parliamentarian and would reflect credit upon himself and upon his constituency, should he be elevated to the high position which he seeks.

SHOOTING MARSH HENS.

Local Sportsmen Having Fine Luck at Wrightsville Sound.

Any number of huntsmen have been seen on the sound, between Wrightsville and the Hammocks, during the past few days shooting marsh hens and all have had splendid luck. There were many from the city on the sound yesterday afternoon and nearly all killed the limit of 15 marsh hens. The sportsmen say that the birds are not so plentiful this year as formerly. Among those out yesterday was Dr. J. H. Dreher, who arrived rather late in the afternoon, but succeeded in wining ten. He went to the sound from the trap shoot of the Wilmington Gun Club. County Treasurer H. McL. Green was also among the sportsmen out yesterday and had his usual fine luck.

BLADEN STREET REVIVAL.

Series of Revival Services to Begin Sunday Morning.

A series of revival services will begin tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at Bladen Street M. E. church, the services continuing throughout the week and possibly longer. The pastor will be assisted in these services by Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lumberton, N. C., who is a most able and earnest divine. The services will be held during the week each night at 8 o'clock with a song and praise service at 7:45 o'clock. It is hoped that the meetings will result in a great outpouring of the Spirit and the Christian people of all denominations are asked to join in this effort for the salvation of souls.

TRAP SHOOT YESTERDAY.

Second in the Series for Handsome Trophy—Scores.

L. Clayton Grant, Esq., one of the recent recruits among the devotees of trap shooting, captured the honors in the regular weekly trap shoot on the grounds of the Wilmington Gun Club yesterday afternoon. It was the second in the series for the handsome trophy offered by the DuPont Powder Company. The attendance was not as large yesterday as in the other shoots this season, some of the members being out of the city. The following are the scores out of a possible 50: L. Clayton Grant, Esq., 43; Dr. F. H. Russell, 37; J. Frank Jarman, 36; Dr. J. C. Wessell, 36; Dr. J. H. Dreher, 39; Mr. Barnes, 37.

Mr. M. E. Graham is President.

Mr. M. E. Graham was elected president of the Baraca Class of the First Baptist church Thursday night instead of Mr. C. S. Lewis being elected, as both president and vice president as would appear in the report in The Star yesterday morning. Mr. Graham has been actively associated with the Baraca class since its organization several years ago, serving it in various capacities, including that of president, and besides is prominent in the City Baraca Union, so his election is on all accounts a peculiarly happy one, and augurs well for the continued progressive leadership of the Baptist Baracas, supported as he is by a strong corps of fellow officers.

Remains Taken to Tomahawk.

The body of Mr. Coley Marley, who died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital Thursday, was taken on the A. & Y. train yesterday morning to Tomahawk, where the young man lived, and the funeral and interment took place there. Mr. Marley was 30 years old and unmarried and had been under treatment at the hospital here since July 26th. The body was accompanied to Tomahawk by a friend who arrived Thursday night in response to a message announcing the death of the young man.

LAST REGATTA OF SEASON

Will be Sailed This Afternoon Over the Course of the Carolina Yacht Club—Has Been a Most Successful Season.

The last regatta of the season and the sixth in the series for the handsome Jones-Walters trophy will be sailed over the course of the Carolina Yacht Club this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock. This race will be for Class A boats only and it is expected that practically every boat will be entered. With favorable weather conditions the race this afternoon will doubtless prove the most interesting and exciting of the season, as it will determine the prize winners.

Col. John VanB. Metts is leading in the series for the Jones-Walters trophy; Capt. E. A. Metts is second and Mr. B. H. Bridgers stands third, Capt. E. A. Metts and Mr. A. B. Skelding were tied for second place up to the last race, but in that race Mr. Skelding's boat fouled with the boat of Col. John VanB. Metts, giving the second place to Capt. E. A. Metts.

The handsome Jones-Walters trophy, a large loving cup, is now on display in the show windows of Hounet's jewelry store, as are also the sterling silver pitcher, offered as second prize, and a set of patent blocks, offered by ex-Commodore S. P. Cowan as the booby. The prizes will be presented upon a date to be decided upon later. The members of the club are already talking of plans for the frolic for this occasion, but nothing definite has yet been decided.

The race this afternoon closes a most successful season and it can be safely said that the captains of the craft regret that the season is drawing to a close. There have been a number of races this year and the captains entered the contests with enthusiasm and a determination to win. Nearly all the races have been witnessed by large and interested crowds and a large number will very likely see the closing contest this afternoon.

The boats are owned and sailed by the following gentlemen: Messrs. Platt W. Davis, Burke H. Bridgers, Irving Corbett, A. B. Skelding, R. G. Rankin, Jr., J. Stevenson Brown, C. W. Worth, Nelson MacRae, Col. John VanB. Metts and Sheriff S. P. Cowan's boat, sailed by Capt. E. A. Metts.

There being 10 entries for the series there are 10 points to be gained in each race by the winning boat, the points being reduced according to the position of each other boat as she finishes the race. The first race this season was won by Mr. Bridgers and three have been won by Col. John VanB. Metts and Mr. Davis has won one race.

Mr. Pembroke Jones, one of the givers of the handsome trophy, is an ex-commodore of the club and has always taken a great interest in the club and races. When an active member of the club he captained the Idler which was a fast boat and won many races. Mr. Harry Walters, who shares with Mr. Jones in the gift of the cup, has been a member of the club ever since he came to Wilmington years ago and like Mr. Jones has been very much interested in yachting at the beach. He sailed the yacht "Peggotty" against the Idler and other boats in the races at that time.

CURES PIMPLES EASY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Co. have done the biggest business it ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, ache, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound on disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, they will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

NOT A REPUBLICAN.

All of Prominence in District Unanimous for Mr. Meares.

To the Editor, Morning Star, City.

Sir:—In your issue of today's paper under the head of "Landslide for Godwin" you close with the statement that "one Republican prominent in the councils of the party, declared * * * * * * that he was glad the Harnett county man was the person to represent this district in the halls of Congress." In this you must be in error, either in misquoting the individual referred to or in assigning to him a prominence in the councils of the party.

The nomination of Mr. Meares by the Republicans of this district was unanimous, and there was sincerity in that unanimity, and as I have had an opportunity to hold conversation with nearly every one in this district who is considered "Prominent in the councils of the party" I have yet to hear any expression that would reflect on their loyalty as Republicans, or upon their desire to see Mr. Meares the successful candidate, who ever the Democratic nominee might be.

My purpose in writing this is to correct a misrepresentation of any man who is aligned with the Republican party, and sincere in that alignment. Respectfully,

T. E. WALLACE.

Clayton Grant, Esq., appeared for the defendant while the prosecution was represented by Marsden Bellamy, Esq. The Recorder found the deefndant guilty and sentenced him to three months on the county roads.

ACME TEA CHEST PLANT.

Building Saw Mill Across River—New Machinery is Arriving.

In addition to the improvements recently made in the plant of the Acme Tea Chest Company, located across the river from the foot of Princess street, work has been commenced on a sawmill, which will be completed within the course of a month.

The improvements, as previously mentioned, include a veneering plant and since this has been added the entire plant has been in operation both day and night. With the new machinery the tea chests can be made in this country instead of shipping the logs to the headquarters of the company in Scotland, as was the case for several years. During the past few weeks the company has received several consignments of machinery by the Clyde line, coming here from New York, where it was imported from Scotland.

The machinery being received here was first shipped from America to Scotland and when the company later decided to make the tea chests in this country, was shipped back here.

There will be a steamer here some time this Fall to carry a cargo of the chests to Scotland. At the present time they are being shipped away from here by Clyde Line and exported from New York.

SHIPPING NEWS AT PORT.

Two Schooners Cleared Yesterday—Capt. Rice on Inspection Trip.

Sanders, goes to Little River to receive cargo from the Hammer Lumber Company and the Fannie Prescott, Capt. Cogswell, cleared for Beaufort. Both vessels will sail today.

Capt. Fred B. Rice, United States steamboat inspector, was here yesterday inspecting some of the local craft. He was on his regular trip over this district.

INSPECTING MOTOR BOATS.

Custom Officers Seeing That Regulations Are Being Carried Out.

An inspection of the motor boats at the port by custom officers has been in progress this week, pursuant to orders from the Treasury Department in regard to the new regulations which went into effect during the Summer.

A custom officer from here inspected the motor boats at Southport the first of the week and will make report, as to how well the laws are being observed, to Collector Keith. Orders in regard to the regulations were also received by Capt. R. O. Crisp, of the Seminole, and there is some likelihood of officers from the cutter making an inspection at the port in the near future.

—Ella Buie, colored, was arrested last night on a warrant charging her with assault with deadly weapon on Hannah Nelson, colored, some time yesterday. The Nelson woman is said to have slapped a child of Ella Buie, which caused the latter to bring a stick into play, but no serious damage was done.

—Justice A. Silverman yesterday rendered his decision in the case against Mr. James Orrell, conductor of a suburban car, charged with simple assault on James Kelly, of Hartsville, S. Prosecutor Taxed With Costs.

Messrs. Walter Bell and George W. Millis, brothers-in-law, were arraigned in Justice Borneman's court yesterday morning on charges of assault with deadly weapons on each other, the warrants being sworn out by one against the other. Mr. Bell was also charged with assault on Mrs. Maggie Millis and there was a peace warrant against him. The warrants were issued late Thursday afternoon, but were not served until yesterday morning. The differences had probably been settled before the cases were called in court, for neither would give testimony. The justice dismissed the cases at the cost of the prosecutors.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY.

Wm. McDuffie, Colored, Severely Slashed by Another Negro.

Falling out over a negro woman in whom both were interested, William McDuffie and another negro had a lively fight on the street at 11th and Princess about 11 o'clock last night and in the melee McDuffie was severely slashed on the neck. He received one gash on the side of the neck and the other on the back of the neck. The negro who did the cutting made his escape and had not been captured at 2 o'clock this morning. McDuffie was sent to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where he is being given attention. The trouble between the negroes started in a house at 11th and Princess and then they adjourned to the street to settle the matter, but only McDuffie was wounded, it is said.

SECURES NEW QUARTERS

Salvation Army to Occupy Hall in Building Recently Vacated by Evening Dispatch—Open Air Services Sunday.

The purchase of the MacRae building by Mr. J. M. Solky and the execution of his plans to overhaul the second and third stories and convert them into offices and bachelor apartments, made it necessary for the local post of the Salvation Army, Ensign and Mrs. Williams in charge, to find new quarters, and a few days ago a lease was secured on the second floor of the building recently vacated by the Evening Dispatch, on Market, near Second street, to which place the effects of the post are now being moved.

Ensign Williams stated last night that it would be impossible to get the hall in readiness for services tomorrow, hence an open air meeting will be held at 11 A. M. at corner of Front and market streets. Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock an open air meeting will be held at Front and Princess streets, and Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Army workers will hold a service in the grove at Delgado.

While the new hall will be much larger and probably more conveniently arranged than the old, there are no living apartments in the old Dispatch building and Ensign and Mrs. Williams have taken up their residence at 701 South Second street. They will be at the hall a considerable portion of the time, however, and the usual services will be held there.

The workmen now engaged in thoroughly overhauling the hall and making the necessary changes for occupancy by the Salvation Army will complete their work within a few days and during the coming week the hall will be ready for use. The grand opening of the Army's new home will occur next Sunday and Ensign and Mrs. Williams are planning an attractive programme, which will be announced lated.

IMPORTANT SUIT STARTED.

Action Against County Commissioners and Mr. I. B. Rhodes.

A civil action was instituted in Superior Court yesterday by Mr. T. J. Keenan against the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover county and Mr. I. B. Rhodes, involving the ownership of certain portions of the "rock quarry" tract of land, just east of the city. The summons in the case was served from the Sheriff's office on Mr. Duncan McEachern, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and Mr. I. B. Rhodes, and County Attorney Marsden Bellamy was instructed to make answer to the complaint, when it is filed, for the county. The plaintiff represented by Ricaud & Empie and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan. The tract from hich the county removed the rock about a year ago is said to be involved in the action started yesterday. The tract from which the county removed rock about a year ago is said to be involved in the action started yesterday. The county, it is stated, holds a contract with Mr. Rhodes for removing this rock and the county will probably take the position that it is up to Mr. Rhodes to contest the action more than the county.

EAGLES TO GIVE BANQUET.

Many of the old favorites, including Doc Quigley John Healy and Norman Stanley, are with the company this season, and a number of new people have been taken on.

SECOND BOWLING CONTEST.

There are twelve games in the series, and a set of three games will be played every Wednesday night until the series is concluded. The teams are composed of five from each company as follows: Company A: Elmer, Fick, Burriss, Davis, C. C., and Loughlin, C. C.; Company B: Davis, L., Durant, Burnett, Register and Dixon. Company A won in the contest last night with a total of 2,122 pins against 1,868 for Company B. The highest individual score was made by Mr. Albert Elmer, who got 212 pins. He also made the highest average in the three games, his score being 195 pins.

Mullets Are Plentiful.

Yesterday's Brunswick Sentinel, of Shallotte, says: "A large haul of mullets was made by the fishermen at Tubbs' beach Saturday, and again on Monday. The fishermen all along the coast are catching about all they can handle——It has just been reported to us that the crew of the Rourk beach made a tremendous catch of mullets Wednesday morning, of 175 or 200 barrels, which caused them to send off for help to clean them, as they had no means for icing them up, or quick transportation."

Hit Under Eye With Stone.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning, while walking along Sixth street, near Swan, with a friend, Henry Maybanks, colored, was struck under the eye with a stone thrown by a negro unknown to either. The negro who threw the stone was standing off some distance and the missile was hurled with considerable force, inflicting an ugly and painful wound. Maybanks was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where he was given attention.

AT THE THEATRES.

"Beulah" was presented at the Academy of Music last night by the Bernard Amusement Company, Inc., to a small but highly pleased audience. The play merited a crowded house. Miss Janet Waldorf, a charming and attractive lady, as "Beulah," won the audience instantly and she proved herself an actress of great ability. She had splendid support in the following, all of whom played their parts in a way to leave nothing to be desired, Edward F. Finlay, as Dr. Guy Hartwell; Norbert A. Myles, as Eugene Graham; Winchell Whitcomb, as Fred Vincent; Marie B. Collins as Mrs. Chilton, (or. Hartwell's sister); Nell Parker as Pauline Chilton (her daughter); and Susan Chisnell as Harriett, a colored mammy. One of the ladies in the party is said to have had a narrow escape from drowning while in surf bathing at Lumina yesterday afternoon, being rescued by one of the members of the company, who was with her. The manager stated last night that he thought for awhile that there would be no show last night, but the lady, late in the afternoon, recovered her strength and declared that she felt able to take her place in the play. As stated above, the show observed a much larger house.

SCENE FROM "A GENTLEMAN FROM MISSISSIPPI" AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC, MATTINEE AND NIGHT, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17.

The Academy has for its offering today, at matinee and night, the famous American comedy, "A Gentleman from Mississippi," written by Harrison Rhodes and Thomas A. Wise, and presented by Wm. A. Brady. Local theatre-goers are more or less familiar with the merits of the play, which is one of the most successful comedies produced in twenty years. The story deals with a number of very ludicrous adventures of a newly elected Southern United States Senator, four little love romances and much intrigue and political trickery. A simple cotton planter from Mississippi is sent to the national Senate from his State and the play opens at the time of his arrival in Washington. Here he is met by a young newspaper reporter, Bud Haines, who impresses him so favorably that the Senator makes him his secretary. Bud is well versed in the methods employed at the national capital and saves the new Senator from many pitfalls. A shady land deal is engineered by some politicians and the Senator is compromised by his own son and daughter being induced to invest in it. He finds a way, however, to defeat the schemers and saves both his money and his family honor.

"A Gentleman from Mississippi" is loaded to the guards with uproarious comedy and the result is a roar of laughter from the first entrance of the Senator to the fall of the final curtain. Wm. A. Brady will bring his special cast here for this engagement, prominent among whom are Robert A. Fisher as Senator Langdon, John Butler as the newspaper reporter, and John Arthur, W. H. Townsend, Arthur Ebbets, Thomas A. Irwin, Ernest Evers, Frank Hartwell, E. H. Bender, Walter Pollock, George H. Palmer, Emma Meffert, Leah Beard, Jane Otey, Jane Farnley, Beulah Watson, Lute Adams and others.

Seats for both performances are now selling at Plummer's. The matinee prices go but to $1. For night the scale goes to $1.50.

Field's Big Show Monday Night.

Monday night's brilliant offering at the Academy will be the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels now making their twenty-fifth consecutive annual tour and celebrating the quarter-century marking year of its existence; in honor of this Silver Jubilee Year Mr. Al. G. Field offers a production of far greater merit than anything heretofore produced by this most successful manager whose name has become a household word throughout the land. The Al. G. Field Greater Minstrel show this year offers a series of positive scenic innovations and surprises; more and better singers; more real novelties by way of splendid and gorgeous spectacles than has ever graced an organization bearing Mr. Field's name; which, considering this man's reputation as a producer of minstrelsy is saying much. The electrical and scenic equipment of the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels this season necessitates the carrying of a crew of eight skilled mechanics and electricians to properly handle the innumerable intricate workings of this production. The list of comedians this season, headed by Al. G. Field, Doc Quigley, John Healy, Johnny Dove, Gov. Bowen, Sam Harris, and an incomparable array of fun-makers who are bound to make this season's tour of the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels a memorable one.

Seats went on sale at Plummer's this morning, and the highest price per seat reached but $1.

Popular Musical Comedy on the Way.

The musical comedy, "The Newlyweds and Their Baby," is a show piece with music which had a great popular success here last year, and has since enjoyed remarkable runs in Chicago and New York. It will be seen here Thursday, September 22nd. A truthful estimate of the value of the play compels the statement that at all points of real excellence it is not lacking. There are many touches of human interest in the story of its action; its humor is the real sort, its dialogues are brilliant and its music leaves pleasant impressions upon the memory.

Seats on sale next Wednesday.

At the Bijou Today.

The usual very attractive Saturday bill will be the offering at the Bijou theatre today. The feature picture will be "Haunted by Conscience," a military drama containing several intense situations. It is spectacular and exciting. The other pictures of interest are "A Good Loser," a realistic comedy prettily worked out, and "Argerian Stud," a colored educational film of interest to lovers of horses.

At Joyland.

A special programme has been arranged for Joyland today. "A Devil of Two Sticks" and "A Mexican's Jealousy" are the features. Mr. Reilly will sing "Tickle Toes."

MOTHER HAD FORBIDDEN.

Couple, Failing to Get License, May Go to South Carolina.

There is probably somewhere in the city a couple thinking seriously of going to South Carolina, where no license is required, to plight their troth, having been refused the much desired papers in this county. Yesterday morning a gentleman went to the office of Register of Deeds and stated to Register of Deeds Haar that application would probably be made during the day for a license for Mr. Klander, son of Mr. J. D. H. Klander, and Miss Catherine Skipper, and that he had been sent by the mother of the girl, Mrs. Alice Skipper, to forbid the issuance of the papers on account of the age of the intended bride, who is said to be only 14 years old. A short time later Mr. Klander, accompanied by a friend, applied for the license, which was refused at the behest of the mother. The friend suggested to Mr. Klander that he go to South Carolina, where no license is required, and there be wedded to the lady of his choice. Mr. Klander did not look with favor upon a trip to the Palmetto State, and left the office stating that he would again try to get the consent of the mother for the hand of her daughter. He did not return to the Register's office during the day and it is presumed that he failed to get the mother's consent.

Will Meet Today at Noon.

The Board of Canvassers for this county will meet at the Court House today at noon to canvass the returns from the Congressional voting contest held Thursday. The vote of the county will be forwarded by the board to the special committee in Raleigh and the committee will on Monday announce the vote of the district and formally declare Hon. Hannibal L. Godwin the nominee. It is not thought that New Hanover's vote will be changed by the official returns.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. W. O. McKeithan, of Leland, N. C., was here yesterday making business calls.

—Mr. W. A. Padgitt, of Holly Ridge, Onslow county, was among yesterday's arrivals in the city on a business trip.

HORSE DROWNED YESTERDAY

Backed Wagon, Loaded With Wood, Into Smith's Creek and Unable to Pull Ashore, Water Being Too Deep.

In one of his accustomed balking moods, a horse belonging to Mr. Lewis Tindell, yesterday morning about 8 o'clock, backed a wagon, loaded with wood into Smith's Creek, on the west side of the bridge, and was drowned, after making a desperate but futile effort to regain his footing on land. The water was deep at this point, probably 15 feet, and it was a physical impossibility for the horse to pull the heavy wagon out after it had once slipped from the bank.

Mr. Lewis Tindell, son of the owner of the horse and wagon, was engaged in hauling wood from the bridge to the brick yard for Messrs. Roger Moores' Sons & Co., a short distance away, and had just finished loading the wagon. He crawled on the wagon and attempted to start the horse, which balked, and then began to move backward. It was only a short distance from the water's edge and before Mr. Tindell hardly had time to realize it the wagon went down in the water. Mr. Tindell made an effort to cut the harness so as to free the animal, but he was unsuccessful. The wagon continued to move backwards and carried the horse with it. The animal made an effort to pull ashore, but, of course, he could do nothing in a stream of water of that depth and attached to a heavy wagon and was dragged down below the surface of the water, drowning in a short time. The frame used for hauling wood floated off as soon as the wagon was well in the water and only the wagon proper was submerged.

About noon yesterday the body of the animal was taken from the bottom of the creek and the wagon was also recovered.

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CLASS.

Honor For Mr. W. H. Sprunt, Jr., at Davidson College.

Many friends of Mr. W. H. Sprunt, Jr., of this city, will be interested and pleased to learn that he was elected president of the freshman class at Davidson College at a meeting of the class Wednesday afternoon. Mr. J. M. Hendricks, of Greensboro, was elected treasurer, and Mr. John R. Smith, of Tennille, Ga., was elected secretary. The enrollment at Davidson College is now about 325, and others are expected to enter later. There are about 120 freshmen, some 80 sophomores, about 90 juniors and a like number of seniors. The following relative to the opening is taken from a special from Davidson:

"The term has opened with a marked advance over the big matriculation of a year ago, despite the fact that as numbers increase, there will be an increasing per cent of fellows dropping out of college under the sifting process that is necessary for the highest possible morale."

A FURTHER ADVANCE IN COTTON

Support From Trade Interests and Steadier Spot Markets in the South—Closed Quiet, 10 Points Higher.

New York, Sept. 16.—There was a further advance in the cotton market during today's trading with closing prices a little off from the top, but steady at a net gain of 9 to 11 points on covering, support from trade interests and reports of steadier spot markets in the South.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 6 points and quickly sold to a net gain of 4 to 10 points on overnight buying orders, local covering and some fresh demand from outside sources based on a bullish private condition report which indicated a deterioration of 5 per cent. in crop prospects during the past two weeks. Demand seemed to have been pretty well exhausted on this advance and the market during the middle of the morning turned easier under realizing and a renewal of bear pressure, but after selling off to within 2 to 3 points of last night's finals, again steadied. There appeared to be no particular news item to account for the increased demand, but buying improved and later there was renewed covering on early advices from the South showing Southern spot markets to be generally firmer and unchanged to 1-8c higher. Prices at the best point showed a net gain of 12 to 16 points this making new high ground for the movement and an advance of 25 to 35 points from the low level of the week. Realizing caused slight reactions from these figures, but there was good buying at a set-back of 6 to 7 points from the best. Large spot people were credited with buying considerable October and December during the day, but probably the bulk of the demand come from recent sellers, who were rendered nervous by bullish crop reports and the failure of Southern markets to work rapidly lower, with the approach of the general picking season. Week-end statistics attracted comparatively little attention.

Receipts at the ports today 34,846 bales against 19,458 last week and 53,262 last year; for the week 170,000 bals against 94,815 last week and 241,526 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 970 bales against 1,800 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; 10 points higher; middling uplands 13.90; middling gulf 14.15; sales 742 bales.

Futures opened and closed steay.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Market Stronger Owing to Keen Demand From Liverpool Straddlers —Bullish Private Crop Report —Frost May Harm Crop.

New York, Sept. 16.—Cotton, though weak at one time, has latterly become stronger owing to light receipts and a keen demand from Liverpool straddlers and spot interests at well as from shorts. A bullish private crop report on Friday also had a more or less bracing effect. Moreover, the New York stock has fallen to a small quantity and threatens to be nearly wiped out before it can be replenished.

Moreover, the short interest has considerably increased in the last few weeks. Liverpool operators were short here on straddles. Spinners have been buying more freely. Some increase in the inquiry for export has been reported. This might be the outcome of a renewed discussion of the bills of lading question. It seems that London bankers will refuse after October 31st to accept the "validation" of such bills by the retailers and will require a guarantee from American banks. This might cut both ways for the time being, cause increased receipts and also increased exports.

At the same time a good many people are against the market. They believe the crop is larger than the current estimates that consumption is going to be seriously affected by the high cost of living and also by the relatively high price of cotton judged from the viewpoint of former years. They think the weather has been remarkably favorable for a month past. They believe that when receipts increase as they are expected to shortly, they will find the spinners indifferent and the speculative public out of the market and averse in these dull times to trying bull speculation in anything. Yet today the tone was firm. Shorts deemed it prudent to cover. Active buying by bears and also by Liverpool and spot people caused a sharp advance. The buying was stimulated by the Giles report stating a deterioration within the last two weeks of seven per cent in Texas, 12 per cent in Louisiana and 13 in Oklahoma, and the average condition at 68 per cent against 73.1 per cent two weeks ago and 81 a year ago. The crop is so backward that it is believed an early frost would do a good deal of harm. Prices, it is believed, would have gone higher, but for heavy realizing.

COTTON MARKET YESTERDAY.

Expecting Further Advance in Europe. Some Demand on Market.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Sept. 16.—Yesterday the market showed so firm that those who had expected a decline to follow the weak tone of earlier in the week felt that they were wrong in their position and decided to withdraw from the market. Demand from these sources caused the improvement today, though spinners did not follow the advance over a basis of 13 cents, and tonight the local trade looks for a further advance in Europe tomorrow night. The demand was supplied by hedge selling from the South. Further reports of deterioration furnished the basis for the change of opinion noted above, though buying orders from the South were absent.

HUBBARD BROS. & Co.

THE FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, Sept. 16.—Money on call easy 1 3-4 to 2 per cent., ruling rate 1 7-8, closing bid and offered at 1 3-4. Time loans firm, 60 days 3 3-4 to 4 per cent, and 90 days 4 to 4 1-4, six months 4 1-2 to 4 3-4. Prime mercantile paper 5 1-2 to 6 per cent., sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8365 to 4.8375 for 60 day bills and at 4.8625 for demand. Commercial bills 4.83 1-8 to 4.83 5-9. Bar silver 53 1-8. Mexican dollars 44. Government bonds steady; railroad bonds easy.

DRY GOODS MARKET,

New York, Sept. 16.—The gray goods division of the cotton division of the cotton goods market in print cloths and similar goods is somewhat easy. The coarser yarn goods hold their values steadily. The finer yarn goods are also firm. Cotton yarns are in light request. Carpet wools have been sold at concessions and domestic pulled wools have sold lower in small lots. The jobbers continue to report a seasonable trade coming forward in small quantities from widely separated territories.

STEEL WAS FACTOR IN STOCKS

Transactions Double Those of Any Other One Security—Hesitation and Uncertainty Written on Face of the Market.

New York, Sept. 16.—There was no general clearness of conception and no great strength of conviction on values of securities reflected in the action of the stock market today. Hesitation and uncertainty were written on the face of the market. The undertone was heavy and sometimes weak, but at other times there was evidence of resisting power and signs of support which implied a protective influence. The transactions in United States Steel were more than double those in any other one security and when dealings in Reading and Union Pacific were added, there was not much left of the rest of the market. The great preponderance of the operations in United States Steel gave that stock a large sympathetic effect on the general market. The hopeful spirit of the remarks of Chairman Gary, of the board of directors, upon his return from abroad was penetrated by the scrutinizing to the reservations contained in the forecast. Judge Gary dwelt on the accumulation of old orders as the source of any prosperous activity at the present time, and a casual reference to "only half our capacity per day in new orders" was seized upon for unfavorable deductions. There was very insistent talk, also, of an open cut in prices of steel products in contemplation. The absence of official information on the subject weighed on the market.

The preliminary estimates of the week's currency movement were interesting as indicating a balance of receipts over shipments of currency by express from the interior. The loss of cash in sub-treasury operations of $6,053,000, seems to be thus reduced to little over $5,000,000. The complication over the financing of the cotton movement remained a subject for consideration in connection with the money situation.

So did the report from Washington that the August statistics again showed an excess value of imports over exports, thus turning the balance for the eight months foreign trade of the United States against this country. The discrepancy thus implied in the price level of commodities in this country in relation to the rest of the world gave force to the fears of further decline in prices of steel and copper as necessary preliminaries to trade revival.

The favorable weather report for the corn crop was a sustaining factor. The signs of support for the Harriman stocks on the decline turned the market and prompted the covering of shorts which closed the market strong.

Bonds were easy. Total sales par value $1,755,000; United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 383,800 shares, including Sugar 200; C. & O. 3,300; N. & W. 300; Reading 61,200; Sloss Sheffield 400; Southern Railway 100; preferred 300; Union Pacific 36,600; U. S. Steel 136,800; V. C. C. 400.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Covering by some of the larger shorts stampeded the smaller ones this afternoon and turned the wheat market from weakness into apparent strength. It was because of the smallness of trade at the time, however, that the purchases took so much effect. Closing prices showed a net rise of 7-8 to 1 to 1 1-8c. Corn finished 3-8 to 3-4 to 1-8c. down. Oats unchanged to 1-2c. up and provisions at 20c. loss to 10c. advance.

DUN'S OUTLOOK FOR TRADE.

Some Increase in Business Noted—Large Movement of Grain.

New York, Sept. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co's. weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Some increase in business, incident to the opening Fall activities is noted at many of the leading trade centers, but as a whole the domestic commerce of the country is still retarded by the impairment of confidence as the result of the political uncertainties. There is a large movement of grain and cotton to distributing markets at declining prices, but, the banks have thus far been able to finance this movement without strain.

The recent improvement in the iron and steel trade does not appear to have been maintained. The United States Steel Corporation is now operating only about two thirds of its blast furnaces and there is a large reduction in unfilled orders. The dry goods markets continue as a whole to be characterized by conservatism on the part of both buyers and sellers. Woolens and worsteds are dull and shoes are being traded in very slowly, though stocks are apparently low. Retail business has been stimulated by the return of people from their summer vacations and the beginning of fall buying.

TORE HIS EAR OFF.

Peculiar and Painful Accident to Carpenter at Washington, N. C.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., Sept. 16.—A very peculiar accident occurred at the new manufacturing plant on the Pamlico Chemical Co., now in process of construction on the outskirts of the city this morning when one of the carpenters, Mr. Augustus Alligood, tripped on a wire and fell from a staging about 15 or 20 feet high. In falling, his ear was caught on the sharp iron hook of a snatch block hanging near and almost completely torn from his head. Physicians sewed the ear on again and the injured man is getting along as well as could be expected.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

SIXTH DISTRICT PRIMARY.

Charlotte Chronicle's Comment on Godwin-Clark Controversy.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 16.—The Chronicle this afternoon has the following editorial on the Sixth district primary:

"So! In the sixth district primary yesterday, the one the State Democratic executive committee had to father, Colonel Godwin got away with Captain Clark in great shape. There is little doubt about the fact that in the first and regularly organized primaries, Clark was the accredited nominee. His bad defeat yesterday is easily explained. His supporters thought they had elected him once, and they did not care to be put to the trouble of doing it over again. It is now Godwin against Meares and Godwin's chances resolve themselves into a simple proposition. Will the Clark people support him? Some of them—many of them—may, but there may be quite an array of the unsatisfied. On the whole we should say that Clark is well out of a bad bargain. His party regularity from first to last, is unquestioned, and if there shall be any Democratic loss in the sixth district, it can in no wise be blamed upon Clark. His wisdom in having entered the lists is to be doubted. He will settle that with his conscience, maybe. But it is to be said for Clark that he went into the fight with clean hands and came out of it with a clear record. In the mean time we believe that the lineup between Meares and Godwin is going to be more productive of public interest than is the fight in any other district in the State."

FISHING AT BEAUFORT.

Unusually Heavy Hauls and Prices Drop Quickly.

Beaufort, N. C., Sept. 16.—Fishermen who have returned from their vacations after good luck and poor, will fidget in their office chairs when they hear this story of the opening of the fishing season in this port. Next in order will be tales of incoming vessels going high and dry on shoals of mullet. Everybody hereabouts is full of mullet and the fish are coming in so fast that the price has dropped from three cents a pound to two. Some fishermen have refused the low rate and are running their schooners into the inland ports in search of a better. One captain ran ten miles to escape the two cent rate and got 3 1-2.

If the 300,000 pounds of mullet landed here during the last 36 hours were extended head to tail in a straight line, and moved in that direction, they would reach from here to Greensboro. The sounds and bays as well as the ocean in this vicinity is alive with mullet and about 600 people are employed in handling the catch.

Then thousand soldiers, marines and rurales and representatives of other powers were in line The feature of the programme was an address by President Diaz The monument is an imposing granite shaft rising to a height of 140 feet. It is topped with a figure symbolic of liberty and the base is surrounded by bronze figures representing the various phases of the national life.

STRANGE CASE OF DEATH.

Mr. Ben Threadgill Found Dead in Anson County.

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 16.—Ben K. Threadgill died at his home in Ansonville township Wednesday, aged about 68 year. Mr. Threadgill, who had been feeble for some time, lived alone. Tuesday night his friend and neighbor, Col J. J. Colson, sat up with him. Not long before day, Colonel Colson says, Mr. Threadgill got up and went out into the yard and stayed a short time. He then returned to the house and sat in a chair by the door a short time, after which he went to bed. Mr. Threadgill did not get up at his usual time yesterday morning, but would not disturb him for some time, but finally, he went to the bed and found that he was dead.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—It will cost Uncle Sam just $22,629 to supply each of his Indian charges with rations during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1911, according to figures compiled at the bureau of Indian affairs. This is an increase over the amount expended per Indian last year of 20.1 cents.

SUITS AGAINST GROCERS.

Alleged That Association Forced a Firm Out of Business.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 16.—Judge Grubb, of the Federal court, today gave a general charge for the defendants in the suit of Minton G. Clabaugh against the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, its officers and a number of members, the suit being for $100,000, the plaintiff alleging that the defendants forced him out of business because he did not belong to the association.

After three days of hard work in the trial, Judge Grubb took under consideration a compromise made by the plaintiff in a similar suit in the State court, the settlement being for $10,000. Attorneys for the plaintiff will appeal on the decision to the Circuit Court of Appeals.

The government has a suit against the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust laws.

Dover, Del., Sept. 13.—The Democratic State Convention developed into an active "wet" and "dry" fight late this afternoon. The "wets" won. The battle was for the nomination of a candidate for Representative in Congress. Ex-Attorney General Albert C. White, of Georgetown, a "wet" supporter, defeated William Saulsbury, "dry," of Dover, for the honor, on the second ballot.

Millard F. Davis, of Wilmington, was nominated by acclamation for State treasurer. William H. Walker, of Dover, brother-in-law of United States Senator Richardson, (Republican), was chosen for State auditor.

Mr. Gibbs has been with the company 19 years, having started as office boy.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Official announcement that the seventh international conference on tuberculosis will be held in Rome, Italy, Sept. 24th to 30th, 1911, was made today from the headquarters of the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis. The congress, which meets every three years, was last held in Washington in 1908.

The correspondent adds that the bomb did not explode.

London, Ky., Sept. 16.—Almost complete returns received today indicate that Caleb Powers defeated D. C. Edwarde for Congress in yesterday's primary election in the eleventh district by about 9,000 votes. Returns from a few remote precincts which have not been heard from, may swell these figures a few hundred.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Representative John W. Dwight, Republican whip in the National House of Representatives, apparently won a decisive victory today in the primaries in Tompkins couney. Late figures indicate that he has captured 105 out of the 135 delegates from this county to the district convention.

BAD WEATHER FOR FLEET.

Battleships Have Rough Weather for Their Fall Practices.

United States Ship Kansas, at sea, on Southern Drill Grounds, by wireless via Portsmouth, Va., Sept. 16.—Father Neptune and the weather have been playing their parts in the annual Fall battle practice of the Atlantic fleet with too much vim and as a consequence have somewhat disrupted the plans of Rear Admiral Seaton Schroeder, commander-in-chief of the fleet. The greatest difficulty is that experienced by the 15 battleships in securing satisfactory weather for their allotted time at night target practice. Only five of the battleships have completed their work in that direction.

Battle practice, which had been planned for last night, was again prevented as on Wednesday evening, by the heavy weather which prevailed. An attempt was made at towing the target rafts, but it was abandoned owing to the rafts breaking adrift. In securing the drifting floats two men were washed overboard and it was only after difficulty that they were rescued.

Admiral Schroeder's plans call for at least four more days of practice and this can be gotten in only after the weather moderates. No day practice has yet been held Continuation of heavy weather may in that case somewhat delay the fleet's visit to New York, where the men and officers anxiously are looking forward to shore liberty.

U. S. S. Kansas, at sea, by wireless via Norfolk, Va., Sept. 16.—The Atlantic battle fleet rode at anchor all day, fresh northeast winds and rough sea, making battle practice impossible. The Virginia and Nebraska each lost an anchor, the latter with 75 fathoms of chain. The fleet of tenders sustered damage in the gale; the collier Caesar having her steering gear carried away and two tugs being disabled. The Caesar anchored four miles southeast of Cape Henry, but afterwards repaired. Two other tugs were sent to Hampton Roads tonight for shelter. One of the great target rafts broke up, one-half turning over and probably lost. The fleet will probably complete night torpedo defense practice Saturday if the weather moderates. Battleships could continue practice in rough weather if the targets could be towed. The auxiliary Panther has gone to the Roads to tow out from the navy yard a target float sent to replace the one sunk.

NO MEETING CALLED.

European Bankers Take No Steps As to Bills of Lading.

London, Sept. 16.—No meeting of the committee of European bankers has been called as yet to consider the refusal of the American bankers to guarantee the bills of lading on American cotton shipments. It may be some days before further action is taken, as several members of the committee are out of town.

In the meantime the situation is the subject of considerable interest to banking circles. The general opinion appears to be that the matter will right itself. The head of one of the three firms which opposed the action of the conference on Wednesday, explained today that while he refused to sign the resolution, he would not do anything to prevent the committee securing the guarantee desired.

"If a settlement is not reported before October 31st it will be necessary to convent another meeting at which it is probable a suggestion will be made that will meet the views of both sides."

Sir E. H. Holden, who has been most active in the recent movement, may take up the matter when he goes to New York on his usual business visit next month.

DISTILLER WILL PAY.

T. M. Angle, Wealthy Lynchburger, Offers Cash Consideration.

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 16.—T. M. Angle, a distiller whose case has long been in the courts, has offered a compromise in the United States Circuit Court by proposing to pay $10,000 and costs rather than stand a third trial on a charge of defrauding the government of revenue. Judge McDowell continued the case until the next term of pending a probable acceptance of the tender.

In the first trial the jury rendered a verdict of guilty. An appeal was taken to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals where a new trial was granted because the grand jury in rendering a true bill failed to accompany the foreman in the court room when the indictment was read. The second trial resulted in a hung jury.

AFTER SUGAR TRUST.

Belated Prosecution Again Set on Foot by Wickersham.

New York, Sept. 16.—Plans for a new action to be brought by the United States government to dissolve the American Sugar Refining Company as a combination in restraint of trade was the subject of a conference between Attorney General Wickersham and United States Attorney Henry A. Wise here today. A complaint has been in course of preparation by Mr. Wise for more than a year and an amended draft of it will be filed, it is understood, within a few days.

The sugar company and its officers were indicted by the Federal grand jury on July 1st of last year, but an apparent defect whereby nearly all of the men indicted could obtain immunity, was later discovered. The new complaint, it is said, will be much broader in scope.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 16.—Former Governor E. C. Stokes today said his advices from all sections of the State gave him a lead of 5,000 to 7,000 in the United States Senatorship primary of last Tuesday. Governor Stokes was confident these figures will not be materially changed by the official returns.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 16.—Representative William H. Wiley was re-nominated for Congress at the eight district Republican convention today. Walter I. McCoy was nominated by the Democrats to oppose him.

DOWN THE RIVER.

ATTELL GETS THE DECISION.

Fought a Ten-Round Bout With Charlie White at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 16.—Abe Attell, champion featherweight, won a ten round, no decision bout with Charlie White, of Chicago, tonight. It was his fast work in the last two rounds which gave him the newspaper decision, and until that time White had a good chance to break even with the champion.

Abe was sent against the ropes in the first, but came back smiling and landed a hard left to White's face. White continued to get to Abe's face, but his blows lacked steam. Abe got in some hard punches to Charlie's face and body. Both slowed down in the seventh and there was little hard fighting. They went in one clinch after another, White holding on.

In the eighth Attel landed one blow which brought blood to White's nose and devoted his time in the ninth in getting to White's body.

The champion did all of the fighting in the tenth and would have won the decision on this if nothing else. White was continually holding, while Abe showed his cleverness by breaking away with a blow.

ONE DEAD, 19 INJURED.

Total Wreck Last Night On the Burlington Road.

Holt, Mo., Sept. 16.—One man was killed and 19 persons were injured tonight when two passenger trains met in a head-on collision on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad.

The trains which collided were a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and a Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific passenger, running over the Burlington tracks. A misunderstanding of orders by the Burlington crew is said to have been responsible for the wreck.

H. L. Howard, a Burlington brakeman, was killed.

All those injured were in the Burlington train. The injured, who live in the West, will recover.

Grandvielliers, France, Sept. 16.—The dirigible balloon Clement-Bavard made a successful night flight with out lights over the position of the bivouacked armies which are participating in the French manouvers.
